MARION RACE DRIVER KILLED IN CRASH

WARNER SAYS DISLOYAL MEN WORK IN FILMS

Movie Executive Admits People with "Un-American" Leanings Employed.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—Jack L. Warner, Hollywood movie producer, told the house committee on un-American activities today that people "with un-American leaning" have infiltrated into the movie industry.

But he carefully declined to say under questioning from committee members that these people are Communists and insisted on using the description "un-American."

When Robert E. Stripling, chief investigator for the committee, wanted to know where Communists have invaded the film capital, Warner said:

"The answer is that there are people with un-American leaning."

"Mostly Writers"

They are mostly in the "writing division," Warner added.

"I know they're un-American in their method," he went on, explaining that they endeavor to put into scripts "certain things which in my opinion are un-American."

"Would you admit there are certain people in your studio who are un-American?" Stripling asked.

"Yes," Warner replied.

But he emphasized that whenever un-American ideas creeps into scripts, the studio cuts them out.

The committee refused to quash subpoenas for 19 Hollywood personalities called as witnesses in the inquiry.

Deny Motion

Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) declined to receive a motion for that purpose from Robert W. Kenny, counsel for actor Larry Parks and 18 writers and producers.

Kenny was told to make the motion next week when his witnesses are scheduled to be heard and to file a statement of facts in the mean time.

"This is certainly un-American," Bartley C. Crum, an associate of Kenny remarked.

Kenney was ordered to stand aside so the first scheduled witness could be called.

"That is all—you may not ask one more thing at this time," Thomas retorted as the attorney insisted that the time to hear his motion was at the start of the hearing.

The 19 are among some two-score witnesses summoned by the committee in its announced effort to show that Communists have gained a foothold in the movie industry and are using the screen to spread anti-American propaganda.

They are Larry Parks, who starred in "The Jolson Story," and these writers, producers and directors: Lewis Milestone, Dalton Trumbo, Albert Maltz, Edward Dmytryk, Adrian Scott, John Howard Lawson, Ring Lardner Jr., Alvah Bessie, Herbert Biberman, Bertolo Brecht, Lester Cole, Richard Collins, Gordon Kahn, Howard Koch, Samuel Ornitz, Irving Pichel, Robert Rossen and Waldo Salt.

No "big name" actresses have been subpoenaed but Thomas told newsmen there will be some "surprise witnesses" later.

Fire Truck Omitted From Bucyrus Ballot

By International News Service

BUCYRUS, Oct. 20—A clerical mixup will prevent Bucyrus citizens from voting on a $15,000 bond issue for a new fire truck at the Nov. 4 election.

City council passed a resolution to put the issue before the voters, and the matter was referred to the Crawford county auditor's office for a report on the millage involved.

When the Sept. 25 deadline for certifying bond issues passed, council members checked up. They found the fire truck resolution filed with city budget papers.

Rescued Air Passengers Reach Boston as Investigation Begins

By The Associated Press

BOSTON, Oct. 20—Back again on the land they never expected to reach, 69 survivors of the ill-fated Bermuda Sky Queen headed for their homes today as the civil aeronautics board prepared an all-out investigation of the near-disaster in the mountainous North Atlantic.

The Coast Guard cutter Bibb, which wrote maritime hostory in effecting the rescue of every man, woman and child on the plane which was ditched 800 miles off Newfoundland last Tuesday because of a gasoline shortage, brought the Sky Queen's erstwhile passengers to Boston yesterday.

The 1,600 mile run from "Station Charlie," the Coast Guard code for its weather station where the flying boat came down, ended in one of the wildest demonstrations since the first troopship came home from the recent war.

Praise Crew of Bibb

One and all, the survivors, many clad in dungarees, shouted their praises of the crew of the Bibb. Too, they couldn't say enough about the airmanship of Captain Charles Martin of Miami, Fla., pilot of the Sky Queen.

At the same time, however, some of the passengers charged the seaplane had been "overloaded".

William Bostock, Shell Oil Company employe, a survivor, said a declaration was signed by all but three of the plane's adult passengers, asking "why planes of this type are allowed to fly."

Robert Laffer, 62-year-old New York fur dealer, and Patrick Quinn, of Long Beach, Calif., first officer on the S. S. Chisholm Trail, both agreed to the "overloading" complaint.

When Captain Martin brought the big seaplane down, waves 35 feet high, with crests 100 feet apart were reported.

Captain Paul B. Cronk, commanding the Bibb, asserted Martin "should have received a larger share of today's acclaim. He was not a sailor but kept his plane stable, although handicapped by sea-sickness."

Taken to Red Cross

There they were given a hearty meal and furnished with clothing, transportation and money.

The American International Airways, operator of the plane, furnished transportation. The crew immediately flew to New York.

There, Captain Martin, former Navy officer, said he had a sufficient supply of reserve gasoline when he left Poole, England, for Baltimore, but that "the headwinds buffetted us and I decided we would not make the effort to go on to Gander, Newfoundland, and almost surely sacrifice the lives of all these people. So I set her down."

As the Bibb came into port CAB officials interviewed the Sky Queen's crew and announced a public hearing would open in New York Oct. 30 "to seek to determine the physical cause of the forced landing."

BOY ESCAPEE, 16, SHOT AND KILLED

By The Associated Press

LANCASTER, O., Oct. 20—A 16-year-old escaped prisoner of the Boys' Industrial school was shot and killed early today as he fled on a bicycle from a downtown filling station.

The victim was Albert Eugene McCoy of near Niles, who was received at the school Nov. 26, 1946, for burglary.

Patrolman Lloyd Crider said he fired one shot at the fleeing youth when he failed to heed three warnings to stop. McCoy fell from the bicycle and died in Lancaster hospital at 4 a. m.

Crider said he and other officers responded in a cruiser to a call that someone was attempting to break into the filling station and saw McCoy run from behind the building.

The officers pursued on foot, and Crider said he fired only when he saw that they were losing ground.

Coroner C. A. Barrow gave a verdict of justifiable killing.

NORTH CO. FOREMAN'S GALION HOME STONED

Special to The Star

GALION, Oct. 20—Vandalism was evidenced Saturday in the stoning of the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Helfrich who live in Renschville, three houses west of the Galion corporation line.

Deputy Sheriff Clyde Richardson of Galion who was summoned to the scene, said that five rocks were thrown through the front windows of the home some time between 6 p. m. and 10:20 p. m. The racks, about the size of a large fist, were thrown with such force that they hurled through the window, the closed venetian blinds, and across the 28-foot long living room. The blinds were broken as well as the cord and canvass which holds the slats of the blinds.

Mr. Helfrich said that the shattered glass was scattered over the living room floor. He said he and his wife had gone up town shortly before 6 p. m. and returned about 10:20.

Mrs. Helfrich called Galion police immediately, she said, and later Deputy Sheriff Richardson called at the home to investigate.

Mr. Helfrich said he did not know if his position as foreman at the strikebound North Electric Manufacturing Co. had anything to do with the act of vandalism. He has been on duty at the gates in the company's back-to-work movement where workers were returning to the plant last week. He said he had taken a friendly attitude toward the pickets on duty at the gates.

Footprints could be seen at the edge of the lawn where it was believed someone had stood to throw the stones, the deputy sheriff reported.

FRENCH VOTE SHOWS VICTORY FOR DE GAULLE

Wartime Chief Rolls Up Lead of 38 to 40 Per Cent of Total.

By The Associated Press

PARIS, Oct. 20 — Candidates nominated by Gen. Charles De Gaulle's six-months-old rally of the French People (RPF) were leading in 29 out of 37 major municipalities today as returns from yesterday's balloting rolled in from all over France.

De Gaulle's party held a substantial lead over all other parties, including the Communists, in the early returns.

"There's no doubt about it, De Gaulle has won," said Maurice Schuman, parliamentary leader of the Popular Republican Movement (MRP) which lost ground heavily in yesterday's voting. De Gaulle's RPF, although leading the Communists, did not appear to have dented Communist voting strength in any substantial amount.

Running on an anti-Communist platform, and competing in a French election for the first time, RPF was averaging between 38 and 40 per cent of the total vote, as against 26 to 28 per cent for the Communists, 19 per cent for the Socialists and less than 10 per cent for MRP.

The eight large communities where the issue remained in doubt were Toulon, Rennes, Besancon, Beauvais, Grenoble, Nancy, Lille and Angers.

Towns Where RPF Leads

The 29 communities where De Gaulle's men were running far ahead were Paris, Algiers, Bordeaux, Troyes, Nevers, Melun, Mulhouse Colmar, Lyon, Montbeliard, Pontarlier, Lorient, La Rochelle, Biarritz, Bayonne, St. Malo, Marseille, Annecy, Nantes, Versailles, Epinal, Strasbourg, Mantes Sur Seine, St. Raphael, Alencon, Verdun, Rouen, Metz and Nice.

Sunday's balloting was held to choose municipal councils in 38,000 French localities. An estimated 25,000,000 votes were cast.

Official tabulation of the first 2,874,821 votes gave these results: RPF—1,152,450 votes, or 40 per cent of the total. Communists—827,394, 28.8 per cent. Socialists—559,855, 19.5 per cent. Popular Republican Movement (MRP)—259,292, nine per cent. Other parties—75,830, 2.7 per cent.

These figures indicated that the strength of the RPF was coming mainly from previous adherents to the MRP, which also is anti-Communist, and to a lesser extent from the Socialists. Foreign Minister Georges Bidault's MRP ballot percentage, in the early returns, was down 14 per cent from what it polled in the last municipal elections.

De Gaulle Back

In any event, these early returns apparently meant that Gen. De Gaulle, who has been something of a political mystery man since he quit as head of the provisional government in January, 1946, had made a real political comeback.

As one token of this comeback, he was elected mayor of the village of Colombey-les-Deux-Eglises, polling 112 out of 188 votes, even though he was not a candidate and his name was not on the ballot.

Pierre De Gaulle, the general's brother, was elected to the municipal council in Paris and is slated to be mayor. The RPF was winning about 50 per cent of the vote in Paris. The general's brother-in-law, Jacques Vendroux, was named to the council in Calais.

Premier Paul Ramadier, a Socialist, was reelected mayor of DeCazeville, a village in central France, although his party was running third.

NATION'S RAILROADS DENY WARTIME OVERCHARGES

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—The nation's railroads, in a brief filed today with the interstate commerce commission, denied that they over-charged the government for wartime movement of freight.

The brief declared that shipments "moved to a substantial extent upon rates far lower" than those accorded the general public.

During the last year, the department of justice, alleging overcharges, has filed with the commission a series of reparation claims against the carriers. Altogether, millions of dollars are involved. Counsel for the railroad said the claims have been variously estimated as high as three million dollars.

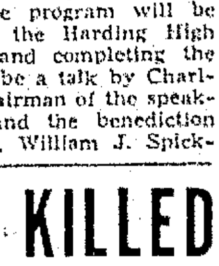
Fund Drive Kick-Off Meeting Set Tonight

The "Kick-Off" meeting to launch Marion county's Community Fund campaign to raise $60,043 to finance the work of agencies in the Marion Community Foundation, will be held tonight in the Club Co-Ed room at the Y. M. C. A. The general public is invited to join with the workers and members of the Foundation, for the meeting which will get under way at 8 p. m. More than 400 workers will take part in the campaign.

Ralph E. Carhart, general chairman, will preside for the meeting and representing the foundation will be the president, E. L. Cleveland. The address will be given by Rev. Philip Auer, pastor of Peace Lutheran church at Galion. The address will be broadcast over station WMRN at 8:30 o'clock.



The meeting will open with the singing of America and the invocation by Rev. J. B. Holloway, pastor of Trinity Baptist church. Mr. Cleveland's talk will be "Tribute to the American Way," and the response will be by Mayor Harry L. Dowler. Music for the program will be furnished by the Harding High school band and completing the program will be a talk by Charlton Myers, chairman of the speakers bureau and the benediction by Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, V. F., pastor of St. Mary Catholic church.

The house-to-house canvass will get underway Tuesday with teams working in the wards and precincts and in the downtown section under a group of workers designated as the commercial division. In the county the workers have been organized in groups to cover the entire rural district under the chairmanship of Cletus Uhl.

Tonight's meeting follows a series of ward meetings held in the various school buildings of the city when the workers received their instructions and materials for the campaign. This year's campaign has as its appeal, "Buy Shares in Marion's Future," and subscribers will be asked to guarantee the success of the drive by owning one or more shares. Certificates will be issued in shares of $5 each.

FOUR KILLED IN TRUCK FIRE

Man, Wife, 2 Children Perish as Vehicle Burns After Upsetting Near Newark.

By The Associated Press

NEWARK, O., Oct. 20—A truck ran off a narrow country road in northeast Licking county early today, caught fire, and killed a man, his wife, and the youngest two of their eight children.

The other six children, plus two belonging to neighbors, were riding in the bed of the truck and were thrown clear as it rolled over a 15-foot embankment. They escaped with only bruises and scratches.

The victims were Merle Sharkey, 40, a pipeline worker; his wife, Daisy Frances, 27, and two girls, Sandra, 2, and Oleda Mae, six weeks old.

Sheriff Rowe Francis said Sharkey apparently had just left his home, a half mile from the scene, and was driving to his job with a pipeline company at Utica. He was bringing his wife to Newark for some shopping, and the 10 children were to stay at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jane Sickle for the day.

The one-lane township road runs through rugged country 16 miles northeast of Newark.

The truck was converted from a 1930 passenger car which had the gasoline tank over the engine. As the truck went over, the tank broke open, spilling gasoline over the hot engine.

Trapped in Cab

Mr. and Mrs. Sharkey and the two children were trapped in the cab and burned to death as the fire destroyed the truck.

Neighbors cared for the children until help arrived.

The eight escaping injury were Larry, 10; Helen, 9; Marguerite, 8, Johney, 6; Billie, 5, and Jimmy Sharkey, 4, and two others whose last name was Barcus. Their first names and ages were not laerned immediately.

UN Fails To Break Up Security Council Stymie

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 — The United Nations assembly failed today in a new effort to break the three-week deadlock between India and the Soviet Ukraine, in the contest for the security council seat which Poland will vacate Dec. 31.

Today's ballot, the tenth since the contest began Sept. 30, gave the Ukraine 29 and India 24. A two-third majority of those present and voting—35—votes was necessary for election.

The nine ballot on Oct. 1 gave the Ukraine 32 and India 24.

AMONG 21 DEAD IN STATE; 3 DIE AT KENTON

Harold L. Merchant Fatally Hurt in Midget Car Race at Degraff.

Death of a Marion man in a midget auto race and the fatal injury of three motorists near Kenton Sunday helped boost the Ohio traffic toll to 21 over the weekend and this morning. Five more died in the state from other accidents. Traffic accidents injured 40.

Harold L. Merchant, 26, of Grand avenue died in the crash of his midget car in a race near Degraff. A father, mother and two children died near Newark this morning when their truck left the highway.

One minor injury was reported in five accidents in Marion over the weekend. Three were injured in five accidents in the Marion area.

Marion Race Driver Killed in Accident

Harold Lane Merchant, 26, of 230 South Grand avenue, local midget racing car driver, was fatally injured about 4:30 p. m. Sunday when his racing car overturned in a 50-lap race at the Shady Bowl track in Champaign county near Degraff.

Coroner A. J. McCracken said Merchant, who died in an ambulance enroute to Mary Rutan hospital in Bellefontaine, suffered a fractured neck.

The midget auto race driver was said to have lost control of his car midway in the thirty-eighth lap. His car, No. 8, climbed the embankment on the east side of the track and turned over three times. Merchant was trapped in the car. In addition to a broken neck, he suffered a fractured skull and crushed chest.

The race was the final event of the afternoon at the track situated about four miles south of Degraff, and 15 miles southwest of Bellefontaine. It was the fourth midget race event of the summer and the first to have been held this month.

Merchant, a welder at the Marion Power Shovel Co., had been driving the baby racers for several years in weekend events throughout the state. He was injured last year in a crack-up at a Lima track, suffering a fractured foot. The race car he drove yesterday was said to have been sponsored by a Columbus firm.

Harold "Bing" Merchant was born in Marion Dec. 14, 1920, a son of J. Ray and Lulu B. Merchant. He served in the Navy during the war as a seaman, second class, receiving his discharge in January, 1946. He was a member of the AMVETS.

He is survived by two children, Harold L. Merchant, Jr., 6, and Donald Lewis Merchant, 4; two brothers, William T. Merchant of 230 South Grand avenue, and A. Kenneth Merchant of Harding Highway east; a sister, Mrs. Frances Warwick of 877 East Church street, and his mother of the South Grand avenue address.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Merle Hughes mortuary, Rev. L. V. Bauguess, pastor of Forest Lawn Presbyterian church, officiating. Burial will be in Marion cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7:30 p. m. today.

Three Killed, Three Hurt Near Kenton

Three persons were killed and three injured in a two-car head-on collision near Kenton Saturday afternoon.

The dead were: Mrs. Wilda Downie, 27, and her four-year-old son, Glen, of Ross, O., and Paul Warren, 23, of Detroit, Mich.

The injured: James Downie 31, of Ross, with possible skull fractures and severe lacerations on the face and body; Robert Kinkead, 24, of Columbus, a hitch-hiker in the Detroit car, with possible skull fracture and severe body lacerations, and George Denson, 23, of Detroit, with a broken left leg and severe body lacerations.

The injured were reported "somewhat improved" today by authorities in the Kenton McKitrick hospital.

The crash occurred at 4:20 p. m. Saturday about seven miles north of Kenton on route 68 (state route 31). Apparently the cars skidded on the wet pavement, the state patrol reports.

Owner of the car, Hardy McClelland, 23, of Detroit, escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

McClelland was apprehended by state highway police Sunday for having an automatic pistol in his possession. He was taken to Hancock county jail in Findlay

Byrnes Tells of Two Secret Pacts Reached By "Big 3" at Yalta

This is a serialization of James F. Byrnes' "Speaking Frankly"—six of fifteen chapters of the book published Oct. 15, 1947, by Harper & Brothers. Copyright, 1947, by James F. Byrnes Foundation (A Charitable Trust).

By JAMES F. BYRNES

IMMEDIATELY after announcing the Soviet Union's acceptance of the president's proposal on voting procedure in the security council, Mr. Molotov expressed the hope that Byelorussia, the Ukraine and Lithuania would be admitted to the United Nations. In any event, he said, he hoped the first two would be admitted. Marshal Stalin made a forceful plea in support of the suggestion.

Prime Minister Churchill supported the Soviet request, stating: "My heart goes out to White Russia, bleeding from her wounds while beating down the tyrants."

Not wishing to agree, and yet not wanting to oppose Churchill and Stalin directly while the issue of international organization was in the balance, the president made this statement: "The British Empire has great populations in its dominions, like Australia, Canada and South Africa. The Soviet government has great masses of population like the three dominions mentioned. The United States has no colonies but has a large population. Brazil is smaller than the Soviet Union but larger in area than the United States. There are many countries with small populations, like Honduras and Liberia. We must study the question of whether any country should be given more than one vote. I do not want to break down the principle of one vote to each nation. Therefore, we can decide on the general plan of a meeting to organize the association and then before the meeting, through the foreign secretaries, or at that meeting, we can decide these questions and I will be glad to take them up."

Report Changes Situation

There was no dissent. Because I was strongly opposed to granting the Soviet request, I thought the president had done a good job and that we might hear no more of the proposal. But at the conference table the next afternoon the president began reading a report of the meeting of the foreign ministers which had just been handed him and said:

"Paragraph 2 is that it will be for the conference to determine the list of the original members of the organization. At that stage the delegates of the United Kingdom and the United States will support the proposal to admit to original membership two Soviet Socialist republics."

The report was agreed to.

I learned later that at the foreign ministers' meeting, Mr. Eden, who wanted to be certain of the admission of all members of the British Commonwealth including India, which was not an independent state, agreed with Mr. Molotov on the votes for Byelorussia and the Ukraine, Mr. Stettinius then also agreed to the arrangement. As the meeting opened, the secretary advised the president of the action which the president later announced, and the heads of government approved.

Disapproved by Byrnes

I was surprised at the agreement which, in my opinion, was very unwise. I urged the president at least to ask that the United States be granted a number of votes equal to those of the Soviet Union. The president feared it was too late but said he would consider it.

I convinced Hopkins that, at the very least, we should secure such an agreement from Stalin and Churchill whether or not we afterward exercised the right. He then joined me in urging the president to withdraw his agreement regarding the two Soviet republics unless Russia agreed the United States also should have three votes. The president finally told us he would present it to Marshal Stalin. On the last day I spent at Yalta, Feb. 10, the president wrote him a letter which stated:

"I am somewhat concerned lest it be pointed out that the United States will have only one vote in the assembly. It may be necessary for me, therefore, if I am to insure wholehearted acceptance by the congress and people of the United States of our participation in the world organization, to ask for additional votes in the assembly, in order to give parity to the United States.

Stalin Agrees

The following day Marshall Stalin advised the president that he entirely agreed with him that "since the number of votes for the Soviet Union is increased to three in connection with the inclusion of the Soviet Ukraine and Soviet White Russia among the members of the Assembly, the number of votes for the U.S.A. should also be increased.

"The number of votes for the U.S.A. might be increased to three as in the case of the Soviet Union and its two basic republics," he said. "If it is necessary I am prepared officially to support this proposal."

When I arrived in Washington, there was waiting for me in the White House Map Room the following cable:

"For Justice Byrnes from Mr. Hopkins:

"The president has received completely satisfactory replies from the prime minister and Marshal Stalin on additional votes to achieve parity for the United States. If necessary. In view of the fact that nothing on this whole subject appears in the communique, the president is extremely anxious no aspect of this question be discussed even privately."

Accedes To Request

I assumed he had some very good reason for not wishing this matter to be discussed, and I complied with the request.

The president and his advisers concluded not to ask at San Francisco for compliance with the agreement that we have as many votes as were given to Russia. He did not again discuss the subject with me, and I did not know he had changed his mind. I admit that the public opposition to Russia's three votes as against our one was not so great as I had expected. But nevertheless I think we should have insisted at San Francisco on the agreement made at Yalta. I felt then and feel now that the smaller states would have opposed the request of the Soviets and the United States. This course would have been just and it would have resulted in both governments having only one vote. That would have been the best solution.

Another Secret Agreement

Another agreement was made at Yalta which was to confront me later. This was the "Top Secret" Protocol in which it was agreed that in return for Soviet participation in the war against Japan the Kurile Islands would be "handed over" to the Soviet Union. It also provided that "the former rights of Russia violated by the treacherous attack of Japan in 1904 shall be restored," and listed these as the return of the southern half of Sakhalin Island, internationalization of the Port of Dairen, the lease of Port Arthur as a Russian naval base, and joint Russo-Chinese operation of the Chinese Eastern and South Manchurian railroads. The United States was to use its influence to have China agree to that part affecting China's territory.

I did not know of this agreement, but the reason is understandable. At that time I was not secretary of state. Mr. Stettinius was secretary.

Kurile Pact Reached Privately

Because of problems that had arisen in Washington the President wanted me to return with Admiral King, who was leaving at noon on Feb. 10. We expected the conference would end that evening and that the president would leave the following day. But that afternoon Stalin requested the president to remain one more day. He said they could not conclude their work and he wished to discuss some matter he deemed important. The president complied. The agreement as to the Kurile Islands was reached in private conversations among the Big Three instead of at the conference table, and the protocols, including this one, were signed on Feb. 11. Had I been in Yalta that day it is probable I would have learned of it.

When the president returned he did not mention it to me and the protocol was kept locked in his safe at the White House. In the early summer I learned that President Roosevelt had undertaken to induce China to make the concessions affecting Port Arthur, Dairen and the railroad, but it was not until some time after I became secretary of state that a news story from Moscow caused me to inquire and learn of the full agreement. I presented the matter to Preisdent Truman and he requested Admiral Leahy to transfer to the state department those documents at the White House containing agreements with foreign governments. I wanted to know how many IOUs were outstanding.

Unusual Circumstances

In considering the wisdom of these Pacific agreements entered into by President Roosevelt, one should be fair enough to consider the circumstances under which the promises were made. It was six weeks after the serious German counterattack on the western front. Although progress was being made in both the east and the west, neither the president nor any one else at that time knew how long the Germans could hold out and how many casualties we should suffer before they surrendered. The president had with him at Yalta the joint chiefs of staff. They knew the situation.

The evidence is clear that the agreement was, in great part, a military decision. The military leaders already had their plans for the invasion of Japan under way. They undoubtedly gave the president their estimate of what such an invasion would cost us in human lives with Russia in the war and what the cost would be if Russia were out of the war. They naturally wanted Russia in the war to engage the Japanese armies in the north. But once Stalin knew our plans for invasion were under way, he knew also that we would want his armies and he could demand more for them. Mr. Stalin is not bashful about making demands.

Byrnes Defends Secrecy

Nor should President Roosevelt be criticized for keeping the agreement secret. The Soviet Union was party to a treaty with Japan and we could not announce Russia's intention to go to war with her. Furthermore, Russia's military strength was then concentrated on the German campaign. Any hint of agreement would have been an invitation to the Japanese troops on Russia's borders to launch an invasion. It was in the interest of all of us to allow the Soviets 90 days after Germany's surrender to transfer troops from the European front. It is, therefore, quite understandable that both Marshal Stalin and President Roosevelt wished to maintain strict secrecy.

Toward the end of the conference, Marshal Stalin entertained at dinner. At the time, the press quoted one of the Americans present as saying 45 toasts were proposed. I am willing to believe it, but the simple statement certainly is misleading. Unexplained, it would indicate the diners were thoroughly intoxicated. The fact is that with each toast, the diners took only a sip of wine and many made the gesture without the sip. The dinner lasted four hours. Forty-five sips of wine in four hours, during which time enough food was consumed to last 24 hours, did not intoxicate any one of that group. As for me, I do not drink wine.

Vyshinski Substitutes Water

About the time we reached the soup course, I noticed Mr. Vyshinski, who was sitting near me, pouring water into his vodka glass. Since vodka is the color of water, I decided if he could do it, I could. In the confusion incident to everyone's standing up when a toast was proposed, I would pour water into my vodka glass. It was not very stimulating, but I do know what took place at the dinner. Because of some of the reports in the United States about Soviet officials getting intoxicated, it is only fair to say that all those with whom I have come in contact have been most temperate. Never have I seen a Soviet representative at a social affair who showed the slightest evidence of intoxication.

The marshal was generous in the toast he proposed to Churchill and particularly generous in his remarks proposing the health of the president, whom he described as the "chief forger of the instruments which had led to the mobilization of the world against Hitler."

The prime minister toasted Marshal Stalin as the "mighty leader of a mighty nation whose people had driven the tyrants from her soil." The president spoke with pride of the unity that characterized the relations among the three countries, and expressed hope it would continue.

Significant Statement

One statement of Stalin's that interest me was: "It is not so difficult to keep unity in time of war since there is a joint aim to defeat the common enemy which is clear to everyone. The difficult task will come after the war when diverse interests tend to divide the Allies. It is our duty to see that our relations in peacetime are as strong as they have been in war."

I can testify to the accuracy of his prophecy, and I share his views as to our duty.

When toasts had been proposed to all the military chieftains and the heroes of the war on land, sea, and in the air, I proposed a toast "to the people of our respective countries—the workers on farms and in factories—who did not wear the uniform but whose contribution made possible our victories." The marshal left his place and came to clink his glass with mine in approval of the sentiment. The truth is, he is a very likeable person.

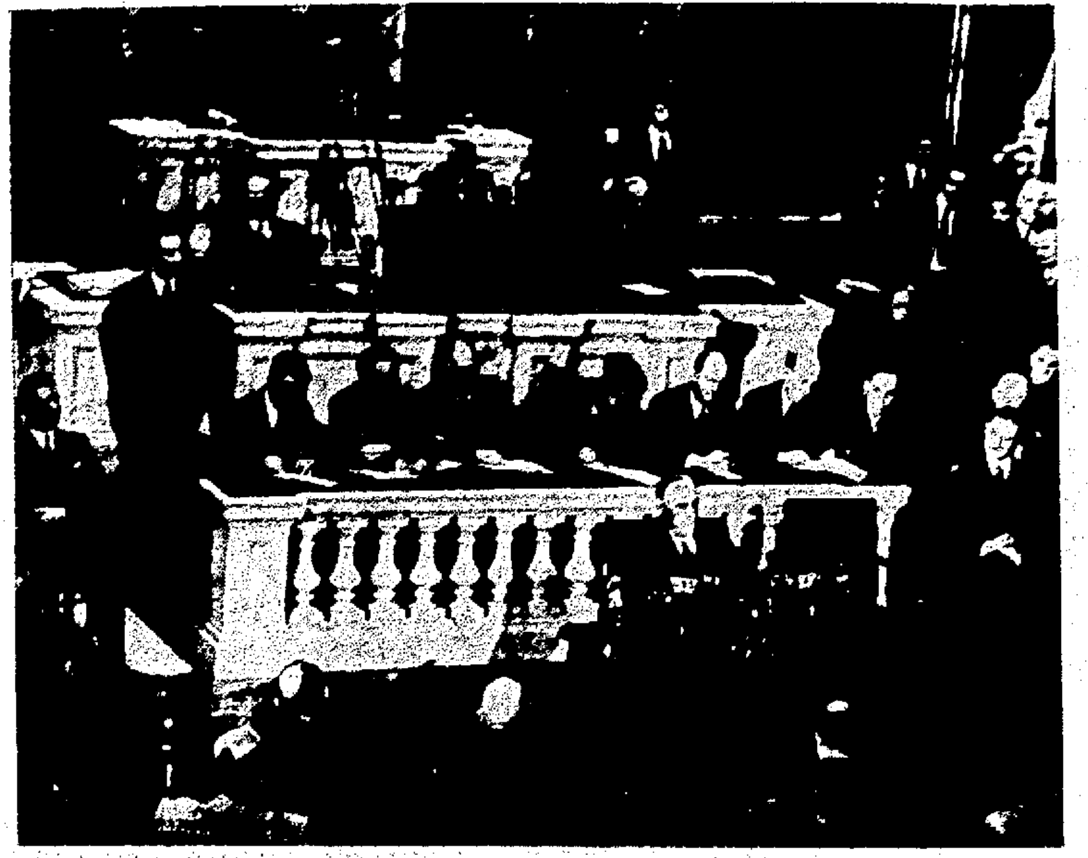
Yalta Report Praised

The report of the Yalta Conference was released simultaneously from London, Moscow and Washington on Monday afternoon, Feb. 12. All the Allied nations responded favorably and American public opinion was especially enthusiastic. The Philadelphia "Record" called the conference the "greatest United Nations victory of the war." The New York "Herald Tribune" declared that "the over-riding fact" is that the conference "has produced another great proof of Allied unity, strength and power of decision." And "Time Magazine" asserted: "all doubts about the Big Three's ability to cooperate in peace as well as in war seem now to have been swept away."

That was how I felt about it. There is no doubt that the tide of Anglo-Soviet-American friendship has reached a new high. But President Roosevelt had barely returned to American soil when the tide began to ebb.

* * *

Mr. Byrnes resigned in April, 1945, as director of the office of war mobilization and returned to his home at Spartanburg, S. C. The next few days brought the death of President Roosevelt, and the day after the funeral at Hyde Park President Truman asked Mr. Byrnes to become secretary of state. Why the change was not announced for some months and the general problems faced in Washington at the close of the war in Europe are explained in tomorrow's installment of "Speaking Frankly."



PRESIDENT REPORTS ON YALTA. From the well of the house chamber, President Roosevelt addresses the members of both houses of congress with his report on the Yalta conference. He called on the members to assume responsibility for underwriting future peace through world collaboration in the same non-partisan spirit America wages war, or, he added, "we shall have to bear the responsibility for another world conflict."

... A quarter!" said Alpheus thun- ... "Those are the good old ... I am trying to bring back." ... that brought on all this hairy agony?" inquired Pythias. "Your aunt left you enough money to buy haircuts three times a day if you want to go on a binge of that kind"

"Not in a modern barbershop," said Thistlethwaite. "Since you grew up they've started imitating night clubs and night club prices.

"The old-fashioned barber earned his living by the sweat of his hand clippers. I haven't seen one for years. You go into a barber shop today and there's a hireling waiting to wrestle you for your coat and hat. If you don't give him a dime his sneer stabs you all the way to the chair.

"It used to cost a dime to get a shoe shine. If you fork over less than two bits now, you're another John Wilkes Booth. You climb into the chair. The barber doesn't have any time to give you the gossip He's become an electrician. He is so busy plugging in gadgets and thinking up things to sell you he doesn't waste words on world affairs

"He doesn't even want to bother to shave you at all unless you take a haircut, too. The shave is four-bits, the haircut a dollar The cheapest kind of shampoo is 75 cents. Tonic costs anything you will stand for—and so does a manicure.

Tip Brought Swoon

"The old-time barber nearly fainted if you tipped him a dime Nowadays I wouldn't even dare be shaved again by the same barber if I gave him less than a quarter on the side. I wouldn't feel safe.

"We've got to de-glamorize the barber business. Tomorrow I'm going to have a sign painted, 'bring back the two-bit haircut,' and start picketing some modern barber shops"

Pythias Roundelay had been listening to his friend's oration with growing uneasiness.

Alpheus I wish you would drop this whole campaign," he said

"Why?" asked the surprised reformer.

"Well, my wife uses a bowl to give me a haircut," said the poet plaintively "If your economy program succeeds everybody may start doing the same thing You'll just inflate the price of bowls and cost me money in the long run"

Balmy Weather Confuses Marion Strawberry Patch

The unseasonably warm October weather which has been reported to be persuading plants it is time again to put on spring and summer appearances, has fooled a strawberry patch at 263 Chicago avenue into the beginnings of a new crop. The patch has been white with blooms in recent weeks and a fully ripe berry appeared among the many smaller green ones this week, Mrs. Iva Beever, who lives at the Chicago avenue address, reported. She would like to see frost stay off long enough to make possible an October strawberry shortcake, she said. In part she attributes the unusual fullness of the oncoming crop to a thorough weeding which she gave the patch in the summer.

Roy Graham of Edison and Clyde Hosack of Johnsville were named delegates to the annual meeting of the Ohio Educational association.

Your Good Health

By DR. HERMAN N. BUNDESON

Causes of Reflex Headaches

IF you hit your thumb with a hammer, you expect your thumb to hurt, and would be amazed if, instead, you suddenly got a severe pain in your head.

Yet that is almost exactly what happens in certain other conditions, where a disturbance in one part of the body, through its effects on the nerves, causes pain somewhere else. There is, for instance, a whole group of such headaches. They are called reflex headaches, and may be due to disorders in nearly any organ

Disturbances in the nose are a frequent cause of pains in the front part of the head which may be either of a shooting or a boring character. Chronic infection of the air chambers or sinuses, bending of the cartilage which divides the two chambers of the nose or inflammation and thickening of its lining membrane may all be responsible for reflex headaches of this sort. They frequently begin during the morning and sometimes last all day As a rule, there is some blocking of the nasal passages and an increase in the nasal secretions. Fortunately, these conditions are easily diagnosed Once discovered, they may be overcome by proper treatment and when they are, the headache vanishes.

Certain eye disorders, such as glaucoma in which there is increased pressure of the fluid in the eyeball, and eyestrain, also may produce reflex headaches. These headaches also are in the front part of the head, are usually moderate in severity and cause dull pain.

The attacks are, generally, continuous, that is, they last all day. Whenever there is headache of this type in the front part of the head, careful study of the eyes by an eye specialist is advisable.

Ear diseases, such as inflammation of the middle part of the ear cause pains on the side of the head, which are shooting or boring in character Headache is often associated with ringing in the ears, poor hearing, and sometimes attacks of dizziness.

Tooth disorders may cause pain in one temple. When a headache of this type occurs, X-ray examination of the teeth should be carried out.

Reflex headaches may be caused by indigestion or dyspepsia, as well as by constipation The head pain in such cases is generally dull and spreads over the entire head Frequently, pain is less after a bowel movement

In women, disorders affecting the womb may produce headaches of a similar nature to those caused by digestive disorders.

From these facts, it may be seen that to determine the cause for the headache, a complete and careful examination is necessary Only after the cause of the headache is found, can any effective treatment to get rid of it be carried out.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

R. V: What can a person do to get rid of freckles?

Answer: Freckles are due to excessive pigmentation of spots in the skin There is not much that can be done to get rid of freckles Various bleaches have been used, but the pain and irritation that they cause are far more troublesome than the freckles themselves I suggest that you forget about the matter.

We had a precious treasure once,
He was our pride and joy;
We loved him, ah- perhaps too well,
For too soon he slept and died.
All is dark within our dwelling,
Lonely are our hearts today,
For the one we loved so dearly
Has forever passed away.
Your life was a life of service,
So patient, humble and kind;
Your thoughts were always of others;
And self was left behind.
Though your smiles have gone forever,
And your hands we cannot touch,
We shall never lose sweet memories

Bucyrus Jaycees Vote To Pass Up Mardi Gras

BUCYRUS, Oct. 20 — Bucyrus will not have a Mardi Gras celebration this year unless some other organization steps forward as sponsor, according to a decision reached by the Bucyrus Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of last year's celebration at their meeting last week.

Reluctance in sponsoring the event was prompted by the date which this year conflicts with the Bucyrus-Bellevue football game here and also the financial obligations which the club agreed were too great for the new Jaycee organization.

The Jaycees completed arrangements for its own Halloween costume dance at the Elks club Oct. 28. Doris Gooding and her band from Plymouth will provide music for dancing.

CLUB ROBBED OF $837

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Oct. 20—Three masked bandits robbed Moe's Main Street, a night club, of $837 early today while 30 patrons believed it was all a part of the show. One gunman ordered a girl singer to continue her act while the other two forced the proprietor to hand over the cash register's contents.

Phantom Bus Romance Exploded by Actress

By The United Press

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20 — Bespectacled Charles Harader, 26, dropped out of sight today, his story of romance on a bus with a phantom lady-love exploded by a pert, 24-year-old radio actress.

The actress, Lynn Allen, identified herself as the "Susan Simpson" whose picture Harader carried in his wallet. But she said she'd never seen or heard of Harader, and he said she wasn't the girl he was hunting.

But neither one of them was able to explain how Harader got hold of the picture.

All last week Harader rode the Griffith park bus—10 hours every day—and told fellow passengers he was waiting for Susan.

He said he met her last summer on the bus and they had several dates. She always met him on the bus, but wouldn't give him her address or telephone number. Then one day he didn't see her anymore.

A Slide-Rule CAN'T Compute Funeral Values!

Feed a slide-rule figures, and it will come up with the answers. Ask it to solve a problem in which human emotions are the principal elements of the equation, and it's as useless as a broken hammer handle.

Certain figures are important to a funeral director, and to those he serves: the number of years he has served, the volume of his business, and, of course, his prices. But we have a very strong conviction that the most important factors are not arithmetical; they deal with consideration, thoughtfulness, understanding, integrity and a host of other things which the slide-rule boys would probably call "imponderables", but which we think are the weightiest considerations of all.

No, you can't measure the value of a funeral director's service with a slide-rule, nor in dollars and cents, because value is not determined by price alone!

Schaffner-Denzer funeral service is distinctive, in that it has a reputation which is known throughout the community: a reputation for the utmost in service at a price within the reach of all.

GUIDING GREECE IS TOUGH JOB

Dwight P. Griswold, Administrator of U. S. Aid, Rated Everybody's Fall Guy.

By The Associated Press

ATHENS — The fall guy for Greece is a well-meaning U. S. citizen from the corn belt, who dared accept the job of sweeping out an economic Augean stable.

Dwight P. Griswold, director of the American mission for aid to Greece, lays no claims to being Hercules. But he has a tough jaw, frank eyes and a stubborn streak of honesty.

Under limitations of time and circumstances which some pessimistic foreign observers believed would doom him from the outset, Griswold took over here last July 14 an assignment in which the polished career brains of the British foreign office had flopped for nearly three years.

He was supposed to restore peace and prosperity to the kingdom of the Hellenes within the following 352 days, and not a day more.

He had, theoretically, supreme say-so over disbursement of the $350,000,000 voted by congress for aid to Greece. By that time it would be gone. on June 30, 1948 he was ordered to have Greece quietly back on her feet.

Recalls Old Slogan

From watching Griswold in shirt-sleeved action at the busiest desk in Athens, the snap impression is that difficult things will, as the saying goes, be done promptly but the impossible will take a little longer.

Despite all the toil, sweat and argument which his role as an American trouble-shooter involves, the husky, 53-year-old ex-governor of Nebraska has salvaged his sense of humor. Griswold grins wryly as he admits that sharpshooting at a trouble-shooter is an international sport.

Greek Communists, of course, have sneered at him as a "Yankee gauleiter."

Rightist politicians, with injured pride, insist he "burned his fingers" when he contrived to broaden the base of the government with the installation of the Greeks' oldest and most venerated statesman, Themistocles Sophoulis, as liberal premier.

British officials, slowly packing up to leave as the Union Jack fades as a guarantee of Greece against the Slavic bloc, comment private: "It's not so bad to chuck all this. We've taken the blame from everybody."

Dollars Disappearing

Workers complain that American dollars are disappearing into the civil war and unemployment is rife, although Griswold has promised to speed up construction projects.

Some generals are not exactly satisfied at postponements in increasing army strength with American funds and equipment.

Important capitalists are perturbed at Griswold's announced intention to bring some of their fugitive property within the scope of Greek taxation.

Griswold's job implied rough treading on "special interests." The reaction from those who get hurt is, perhaps naturally enough, to try to tie him up so he can't do it again.

MAN KILLED TRYING TO DEFEND WOMAN

By The Associated Press

DRACUT, Mass., Oct. 20—Fighting in defense of his girl friend, a 32-year-old Lowell construction worker was slain early today by a gunman who then kidnaped the girl and, police said, raped her repeatedly during a wild four-hour automobile ride.

Detective James F. Conniff of the state police identified the slain man as Edward Pare and said he had been "stabbed or shot in the back—or possibly both."

A short time after the girl reported the attack, Detective Conniff said another Lowell man hunted for questioning attempted suicide by shooting himself in nearby Lexington. Conniff identified the man as Russell Davis, 23.

Detective Conniff said Marion Richards, 24, of Lowell, told investigators she was sitting with Pare in a parked automobile in a woods road when an assailant brandishing both a shotgun and knife approached them.

Conniff said the girl then told this story:

Pare got out of the car and the two men fought until Pare fell, mortally wounded.

The gunman ordered her into his automobile and then sped off through lower New Hampshire—"stopping nearly every five minutes to attack me at gunpoint."

She was held prisoner for nearly four hours before the assailant drove her back to Lowell, letting her out of the car with a warning to "keep quiet until I have a chance to get away."

SUNDAY SCHOOL NIGHT AT "ARMY" REVIVAL

Sunday school night will be observed at the opening of a series of revival meetings Tuesday night at the Salvation Army citadel on North Prospect street. Rev. George Bennard, whose hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross," has made him internationally known, will deliver the sermon and with Mrs. Bennard will contribute to the song service.

The music will be furnished by a guest choir from Oakland Evangelical church. The services will open at 7:45 o'clock. The meetings will continue through next Sunday night.

FIRE DESTROYS GARAGE AND AUTO, LOSS $800

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed a garage and car owned by Beulah Bailey, 921 Bennett street, on Saturday at about 11 p. m. Firemen from Central stationed answered the call. Damage was estimated at about $800. The car was a 1936 Chevrolet coupe.

OHIOANS HUNT PANTHER

By The Associated Press

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 20—Farmers and deputy sheriffs beat the brush in the nearby Canfield-Calla area today for "a long, black panther" described as emitting "wild screams which fade off into the night air."

CALVARY EVANGELISTIC SERVICE IN 2ND WEEK

The second week of revival services at Calvary Evangelical United Brethren church opened Sunday with Rev. Lewis H. Naumann, pastor of First Evangelical United Brethren church at Canton, as evangelist. At the morning service he spoke on "The Revival We Need," while his evening topic was "The Blinding Policy of Satan." A men's choir and men's chorus sang at the respective services. Composing a quartet in the morning were Elmer Harruff, Paul Lill, Rev. R. W. Faulkner and Orus Wetzel. Services will be each night this week at 7:30 except Saturday and the meeting will close next Sunday. Parts of Rev. Naumann's messages follow. "There are people who go to church just as a mechanical operation, to help society. Folks who are living outside of God are not only driving themselves out but also are dragging others down with them. The backslider is dead in trespasses and sin."

Be a Share Owner

TOMORROW volunteer workers will begin their house-to-house canvass for contributions to the 1948 Community Foundation program of service.

The amount of money to be raised is small, considering the vital importance of the six community agencies to be financed for a year, and there is every reason to feel sure that the goal will be reached within a short time. The total is set at $60,043, covering the needs of the Salvation Army, Y.M.C.A., Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Y-Teens (formerly Girl Reserves), and the Emergency Hospital Relief Service.

All these agencies perform services which are absolutely essential to Marion's welfare and progress, and without which the community could not justifiably lay claim to being a city that provides adequately for the welfare and character-building requirements of its citizens. The budgets of the six agencies have been carefully and systematically figured for the coming year, so that the amount set down for each accurately represents the minimum required for efficient and unimpaired operation.

Chosen as a slogan for this year's campaign is this plea to all Marion residents: "Buy shares in Marion's future." That is a good slogan and encompasses in its few words virtually the full significance and all the purposes of the community fund. It is better than regarding money placed in the fund merely as a gift or donation. It is far more than that. It supports agencies which operate for the benefit of Marion's young people, from the very young on up into young manhood and womanhood, and also provides aid and rehabilitation for older persons who have been overtaken by misfortune. All this unquestionably means service to help assure the best possible future for Marion, and since Marion is where we live it is naturally in our interest to do everything we can to see that it has for its residents all the advantages a home city should have.

So when the volunteer campaign workers call to offer you "Shares in Marion's Future," buy generously and gladly. And remember that these workers are giving their time and effort to this important service. Show your appreciation for what they are doing with a cordial greeting and a prompt response to their invitation to be an investor in this vitally important community program.

Talking Point

THIS country is witnessing a perfect demonstration of one of the techniques that have given the union labor minority influence out of all proportion to its numerical strength.

Both the AFL and CIO conventions rubber-stamped the plans of union executives to make the Taft-Hartley act the chief talking point of the forthcoming presidential campaign as far as organized labor is concerned. The executives will do everything they can, using union funds, to create contempt for this federal law among their own members and the gullible portion of the non-union public. The Taft-Hartley act is going to be used as a "cause celebre"—a device to give union members a sense of unity behind their militant leaders—a diversion to keep union members from noticing the lack of unity among their leaders.

Other politicians in this country have picked on Wall Street, the tariff or the lack of it and the gold standard when hard-pressed for an attention-getter. They too have exerted influence out of all proportion to the numerical strength of their followers by hammering away at a talking point calculated to inflame passions at the expense of public welfare. The labor politicians can't be blamed for what they're doing; their technique is not original. By that token it shouldn't fool anybody.

Phil Murray's Move

WHEN CIO President Phil Murray came out for U. S. Aid to Greece last August, sideline spectators of the Communist struggle within many CIO unions and within CIO itself sat up and got interested. This might be the long-awaited showdown.

President Murray now has confronted the CIO national convention with Secretary of State Marshall and won from the delegates an outburst of vocal support for the principle of the Marshall Plan, as opposed to the principle of some CIO'ers who favored scuttling it because it didn't suit the Communist party. This must be the long-awaited showdown.

Mr. Murray's backers have promised that he'd make his move in this direction whenever he thought he could muster the strength to get away with it. They have promised that he would do anything short of splitting the CIO wide open to get rid of its aggressive Communist minority. They have asked the public to have faith in one man and to minimize evidence that other men in CIO would throw its president out on his ear if he ever challenged their good faith as members of the American union movement. The public is pulling for Murray. This is more than another internecine battle in CIO.

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

The President's Dilemma.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S foreign policy has become fixed in opposition to Soviet Russia's imperialistic expansion and to the spread of Communism in Europe, Asia, Africa and South America. The Truman doctrine and the Marshall plan and our general position in the United Nations are in conformity to this plan.

The Russians have fully recognized the nature of the American policy and have responded by a worldwide propaganda against this country, by the public revival of the Comintern, which never went out of existence, and by the unspeakable boorishness of Vishinsky in the United Nations.

In spite of the recent converts to anti-Communism, whose outcries are loudest in exact ratio to their erstwhile appeasement of Russia and their subservience to left-wing propaganda within the United States during the war, this apparent impasse need not lead to a fighting war. For whereas both countries are very angry, neither wants further destruction of Europe, which could only be turned into a desert as the wars of Genghis Khan turned the once lively cities of central Asia into wilderness. Those who shriek most for war with Stalin now were most vehement in their demands for war with Germany and Japan not so long ago.

Confused Economics

The President is pursuing a correct and in most respects a careful course in the face of great difficulties at home as well as in Europe. The Socialism of Great Britain, which has upset the balance in Europe and produced havoc in Asia, has complicated America's policy, which has a habit of partnership with Great Britain. The unwillingness of European labor to work and the natural hoarding of foodstuffs by European farmers have confused the economics of the peace. The partition of India, the rise of the Arab states, the Palestinian partition, the Indonesian revolt, the Viet-Nam revolt, the intensification of civil war in China have added to our burdens. No man can be too wise in piloting his country through all these shoals to peace, and Mr. Truman has done as well as might have been expected.

At home, however, he faces a dilemma that is inevitable in our system of government and in the current lack of public morality. Here Soviet Russia maintains an indigenous fifth column which consists not only of the Communist party, the various Soviet police agents, spies, commercial and engineering representatives, but also a huge body of men and women who during the past decade and a half have, for one reason or another, become extremely pro-Russian. It must be remembered that during the whole of the Roosevelt regime, it was both popular and profitable to be pro-Russian and pro-Communist. And whereas some can twist from one position to another in a flash, those who rationalize their positions into philosophic systems find it difficult to undo what they have said and written. It is easier for a dog to return to its vomit than for most men to confess error.

Cause Is Clear

Mr. Truman, in a moment of enthusiasm, demanded a loyalty test for government officials and congress gave him the money and instructed the civil service commission to do the cleaning up. Nothing has been done. The questionnaire issued by the commission is a joke. It can prove nothing. In fact, congress is now investigating the commission to discover the cause of its failure.

Actually the cause is clear and is one horn of the president's dilemma. A complete and total break with the pro-Russian and even slightly pro-Communist allies of the Democratic party would reduce the President's vote in 1948 to assure his defeat. Henry Wallace has amalgamated all these elements into a notable personal following, estimated to be as high as 5,000,000 votes, which he uses to force the President to compromise his position and to display the paradox of fighting Communism everywhere in the world except in the United States.

There can be no question but the President's heart is in the right place—but politics is politics and an election is around the corner. Too many CIO unions are Communist-dominated and it is therefore hopeless to expect a consistent anti-fifth column effort by the government until the 1948 election is out of the way. The Russians know that, too.

Again To Display Her Literary Form?

Gypsy Rose Lee has just completed a book under the influence of hypnotism.

At last, a new alibi for authors.

Miss Lee will be remembered as the strip-tease artist who took up writing in an effort to get away from the same old grind.

Gypsy is getting older—as who, other than Little Orphan Annie, isn't—and doubtless figured that the customers wouldn't go on paying to see her specialty forever . . . she being no Sally Rand.

Her first two books were mysteries, natural choice in view of her long experience in the art of maintaining suspense.

This business of writing a book under the influence of a hypnotist is a novelty but it might have been better had Miss Lee placed herself under the influence of a grammarian.

Still, Gypsy has revealed almost as much ingenuity as epidermis . . . Maybe she can get the critics to come on up and share her trance.

Aid To Inflation Seen Nov. 1

By Mark Sullivan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 — On the first of next month we shall have another installment of inflation. "Installment" is the appropriate word, for the step next month consists of taking off controls of installment selling. At present, a regulation of the federal reserve board puts a limit on the terms of installment selling; on automobiles it is one-third down and fifteen months to pay. After Nov. 1 sellers of any goods can make the terms what they please, the lid will be off. The new terms, if they are like those practiced before the war, are likely to be much more liberal than at present.

"Liberal" means the purchaser paying a smaller amount as the "down payment" and having a longer time to pay the installments. A humorous exaggeration of what went on before the war was current in many colloquialisms. One, "A dollar down and a dollar a month 'till the cows come home." Other satirical exaggerations were " till you die" or forever."

Higher Prices Predicted

These humorous exaggerations imputed folly to persons who make purchases on the installment plan, and it was this phase of the installment practice upon which most of the criticism of it dwells. But apart from the individual buyer and individual seller, and apart from their respective wisdom or lack of it, the enlargement of installment selling that is certain to follow the removal of government regulation of it next month goes to the heart of our national well-being at this time.

More credit is, in effect, more money. It means more purchasing power. Increase of purchasing power is looked upon as a virtue, and under normal conditions commonly is. But present conditions are utterly abnormal, dangerously so. Increase of purchasing power is wholesome only when it is accompanied by abundance of goods. At present, when goods are scarce, increase of purchasing power means, automatically and infallibly higher prices of goods. The effect of the removal of government restrictions on installment buying next month will be a definite step in inflation.

It follows closely upon another. Some weeks ago veterans were paid some billions of dollars through their cashing of "terminal leave" bonds, originally issued to be paid off some years hence. The cash paid to the veterans was in effect an immense increase in the quantity of money in the country. It was an increase of purchasing power, not accompanied by any increase in quantity of goods, and was therefore an automatic cause of rising prices.

Cause of Inflation

All this goes to the very heart of inflation. While there is much argument about the exact definition of inflation, there is general agreement upon the basic cause of it, increase in quantity of money out of proportion to quantity of goods.

Apart from this basic definition of inflation, there is the mechanism through which inflation operates. The mechanism consists of increase in wage rates (which is increase of purchasing power), followed by increase in cost of producing goods, which means increase in prices of goods, increase in cost of living. This is followed in turn by still further increases in wage rates. That upward spiral has gone on since the end of the war.

At present, increases in wage rates are not taking place to a material degree, though of course the existing rates are high, as the sum of increases that have taken place since the end of the war. In the other phase of the inflation spiral prices of goods are very high and in process of going higher. If increase in price of goods, cost of living, is continued, we are likely to see in the coming months a new wave of demands by labor for higher wage rates. In short, the inflation mechanism is at this moment going strong.

"National Emergency"

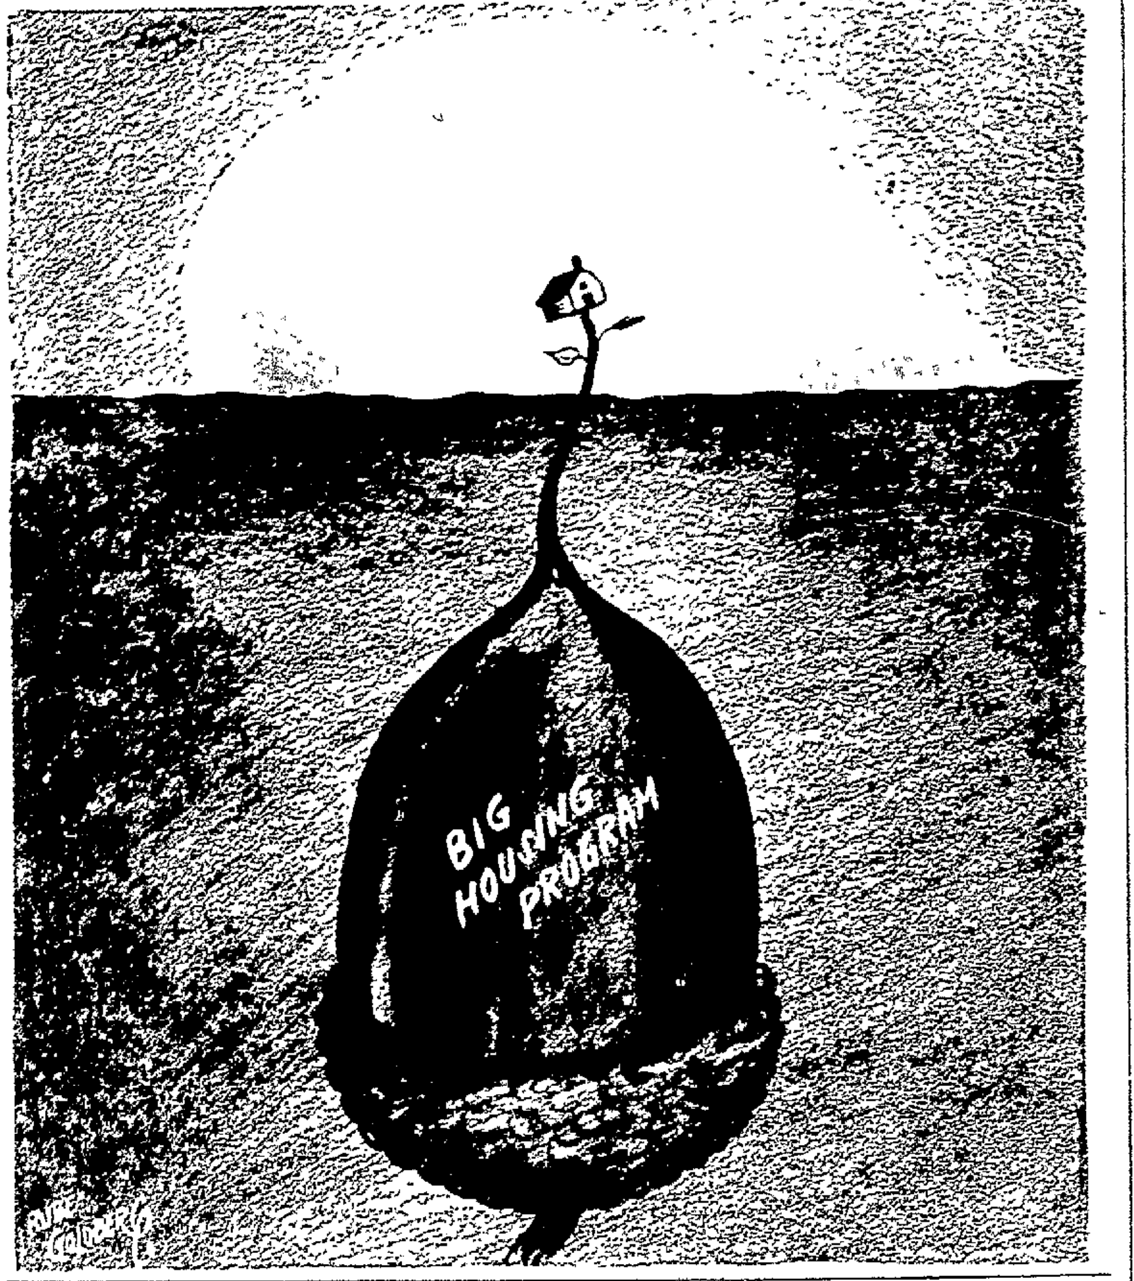
The prospect of inflation is a national emergency. To check it is an imperative obligation on the administration at Washington. The administration itself is responsible for much of it. Among other inflationary actions, the administration, following the end of the war, adopted a policy of bringing about increases in wage rates.

Congress shares with the administration some of the responsibility for inflation. A cause and effect of inflation, currently glaring, is high prices of farm products, food. On this point the government practices a policy called "price support." This policy is based upon statutes passed by congress, some during the 1930s, when prices of farm products were relatively low, some passed during the war to stimulate production of food.

In the emergency today checking inflation is an obligation of both the administration and congress. Much of the recent talk about President Truman calling a special session of congress says the need for it is the crisis in Europe. The domestic crisis of inflation calls equally for action; indeed, inflation is a cause of both the foreign crisis and the domestic one.

Congress and the President together could check inflation. Of many steps possible, one would be modification of the government policy and practice of price support for farm products, food. Another would be extension of the government control over installment selling, due to expire Nov. 1.

Disappointed Acorn



The Sunday Punch

By Stewart Alsop

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—The Politburo rarely telegraphs its punches. There is no really reliable way of forecasting the next turning in the devious road of Soviet foreign policy, since the American experts can only fit together odd pieces of a jigsaw puzzle, with most of the puzzle missing. Yet if these odd pieces of the puzzle are being correctly interpreted, there is a strong possibility that the planners in the Kremlin are preparing a Sunday punch, to be ready for delivery at the foreign ministers' conference next month.

The speculation—and it is still only speculation—runs something like this. The ministers will meet as scheduled in London on Nov. 25. The old familiar deadlock will develop, with Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov tirelessly reiterating his favorite word, "Nyet." Then, just as the ministers and their aids are packing to go home in disgust, Molotov will ask for one more conference. With an air of making an enormous concession to break the deadlock, he will offer what the Soviets have already offered in Korea—simultaneous withdrawal of all occupying troops in Germany.

No. 1 Objective

It may seem odd that this prospect fails to delight the American policy makers. It has long been the first objective of American foreign policy to get the Red army out of Germany, and out of those Balkan states in which the Red army remains for the ostensible purpose of keeping open the lines of communication to Germany and Austria. Yet this American objective is of course conditional on a peace treaty with Germany, including real political and economic unification of all zones, and supervised free elections of a German government.

The astute planners in the Kremlin, on the other hand, if they decide to use the same tactical manuever they have already used in Korea, are expected to demand a simple referendum of the German people before the evacuation of all foreign troops. Already, on the Soviet-controlled radio in Berlin, there have been hints of such a referendum. It would merely call for a vote by the German people on whether foreign troops should be evacuated and Germany unified. The Germans would, of course, vote an overwhelming "yes" on both questions. Then, if the Soviet proposal takes the expected shape, the occupation armies would simply pull out, leaving Germany to the Germans.

Preparations Essential.

Naturally, before making any such offer, the planners in the Kremlin would have made very careful preparation for a possible acceptance of the offer by the western powers. In northern Korea, before making their evacuation offer, the Soviets established an all-Communist "people's government," consisting exclusively of willing Soviet stooges. They also trained and equipped a "Korean Red army" of more than 200,000 men. Thus, the Kremlin planners undoubtedly calculated, if the Americans were idiots enough to accept their offer of simultaneous evacuation, all Korea would very quickly become a Soviet bailiwick. If the Americans refused, the offer would at least be an effective propaganda device in Korea and throughout the world.

There are reliable reports that precisely the same sort of preparations are now in progress in the Soviet zone of Germany. The Communist control of the Soviet-sponsored "Socialist Unity party" is now wholly unchallenged. The unreliable deadwood has been ruthlessly cut out. The Communists have an iron grip on the labor unions throughout eastern Germany, and the Communist minority is on the offensive throughout the western zones. Finally, the German equivalent of the "Korean Red army" is being prepared.

There are reliable reports that this new Russian-created German army, whose core is the German survivors of Stalingrad, numbers at least 100,000 men, and probably far more. It is being kept in readiness in south Russia, and its leaders, Marshal Friedrich von Paulus and Major General Walter von Seydlitz, are in Germany, at the call of the Soviet commanders.

One hundred thousand men is not a great army. Yet in case of the evacuation of all foreign troops from Germany, even so small an army would become the only power in what would otherwise be a complete power vacuum. Working closely with the tightly organized German Communist leadership, this power could be expected shortly to assure Communist, and thus Soviet domination of all Germany.

Adventage To Russia

Thus the Soviets would have everything to gain and nothing to lose. At the most, they would gain Germany, which Nicolai Lenin called the key to Europe. At the least, they would gain an exceedingly effective propaganda weapon in Europe as a whole but especially within Germany. For if the western powers refused the Soviet offer—as they must—the blame for refusing to make a settlement in Germany could be placed on them. That is why those who have most closely followed Soviet tactics are cinvinced that there may well be something in the speculation about the forthcoming Soviet proposal.

T. Manville's Essay

By Truman Twill

Spurred on by the new arrangement giving him 85 cents for every essay written for publication, T. Manville, the tireless tomcat, has done it again. His essay this time is titled "Catty Remarks." He says he does not know why they are called "catty." He continues:

"This is another case of human beings taking a snobbish attitude about other animals. Because cats happen to be quiet and purposeful, except under certain conditions which had better not be described at this time, human beings think cats must be full of guile and deceit. If the truth were known, the kind of remarks known as "catty" can be heard only among human beings, never among cats. With cats, everything is open and aboveboard. We love one another.

"Fortunately cats have quit being peeved about this injustice. They are no more hurt by slurs against them than other animals are. People talk about being lazy as dogs, dirty as pigs and sweating like horses. They say that other people have the morals of minks, the habits of weasels, the brains of a bird.

"They speak of 'poor fish' in a tone of contempt. They call each other dumb as an ox and vain as a peacock. They sneer about someone that crows like a rooster, fusses like a mother hen, talks like a parrot, and is as low as a snake. They complain that other people smell like goats, are as foolish as monkeys and as unwelcome as skunks.

"I have heard people call each other worms, wolves, hyenas, jackals and jackasses. I have heard them talk about being stubborn as a mule, clumsy as a bull in a china shop, having legs like a wren and the face of a hippopotamus. People accuse other people of having appetites like vultures and being as sly as foxes. They think nothing of making cracks about looking like a cow.

"They say other human beings are as noisy as bluejays, sing like canaries or croak like frogs. They make a wisecrack out of laying eggs, which is a darned good trick if you can do it. They laugh about 'getting it in the neck' and 'being led to slaughter.' I have even heard them titter because someone 'squealed like a stuck pig.'

"I don't suppose it ever occurred to most people to wonder what we animals say when we want to insult each other. Would it shock people to know that among cats, for example, the meanest thing you can say is that another cat is behaving like a human being? There are many variations on this. They are too numerous to mention. But the idea is that cats and all other living things besides people on this earth can't think of anything meaner to say than that the goofs among them are as dumb, dirty, dishonest, immoral, clumsy, inconsiderate and generally undesirable as human beings."

Bartender Soars Among 'Guest Stars'

Can you answer these questions... about Marion's Community Chest?

Q . . . Why does Marion have a Community Chest?

A . . . Because it's the simple, sensible way to raise money needed by all the Red Feather character building and welfare agencies.

Q . . . Why do these agencies need financial support?

A . . . Because they can charge only a fractional part of their cost of operation for their services; else the very persons they are doing the most good for would be unable to afford them, and much of their value would be lost.

Q . . . What are the agencies participating in this Community Chest?

A . . .
1. The Girl Scouts
2. The Boy Scouts
3. The Salvation Army
4. The Y.M.C.A.
5. The Y-Teens
6. The Emergency Hospital Relief

Q . . . How much is the least amount these agencies and the Community Foundation can continue to operate efficiently on?

A . . . $60,043.00

Q . . . How do we know that the amount is fair?

A . . . Each agency is required to submit an itemized budget for 1947-48 operations to a committee of civic leaders, who analyze the amounts, item by item, to make sure that no agency can seek more than it actually requires. Their needs are carefully studied.

Q . . . What will each of the above agencies require.

A . . .

Salvation Army	$ 8,000.00
Boy Scouts	13,500.00
Y-Teens	500.00
Emg. Hospitalization Fund	1,000.00
Y.M.C.A.	17,715.00
Girl Scouts	7,828.00
Reserve Fund	5,000.00

It has been determined that these are the smallest amounts which the agencies can get by on without seriously handicapping the folks they serve.

Q . . . How much of this money is spent outside of Marion County?

A . . . Not one penny.

Q . . . What about the Boy Scouts who operate in 4 counties, Crawford, Wyandot, Morrow, and Marion as the Harding Area?

A . . . The 3 outside counties contribute to the fund more than enough to pay their own way.

Q . . . Why give to the Chest instead of to the Agencies separately?

A . . . Because one campaign accomplishes the whole job and the citizens can budget their gifts to the character building and welfare agencies at one time. The citizen also can be sure that all agencies are treated fairly in proportion to the service they render to the community.

Q . . . How does "everybody gain" from the Community Chest?

A . . . It is estimated that these character building agencies make their services available to 80% of our children. There is no way to estimate the value of the welfare agencies, except that misfortune may come to any of us, in which case they stand ready to help. These are the direct gainers. Actually, of course, every one of us benefits when we live in a community where loyalty and conscience protect and keep the young people, strengthen family life, provide health and medical services, and care for the helpless and aged. In other words, a town which is good enough to live in is good enough to boost.

Q . . . How do I give?

A . . . You don't give—you buy shares in Marion's future for the purpose of giving our children greater advantages and protection, and for lending a helping hand to those less fortunate than ourselves. There will be a solicitor call at your home to explain the program. These people serve without pay, and will accept the amount which you in your own heart decide you can afford for this noble work.

Q . . . How much do I give?

A . . . Again you do not give—you invest. These shares in Marion's future are $5.00 each. Your own conscience will determine how many you feel you can afford. Perhaps one or more for yourself and each member of your family. You might consider how much you would subscribe to each agency if they came to you separately, and add the answers and match the total. Remember you won't be asked again for a whole year.

Q . . . Must I pay cash all at once?

A . . . No indeed. Your shares will be issued immediately, but you may pay your subscription over set periods of the year when it is most convenient. Your word is as good as your bond!

Q . . . Will we put this Fund over?

A . . . Definitely yes! Marion has had a new awakening. We have discovered that these agencies are vital to ourselves, our children, and our nation. Never before have outside forces worked so tirelessly to corrupt our youth and destroy our morals. These Community Fund agencies are a great bulwork for good when one is so sorely needed. Even though our costs of living have jumped by leaps and bounds, your sacrifice of a few expensive cuts of beef during the year will be more than enough to give our folks the security they deserve.

RAIL UNIONS DEPLORE ROADS' ADVERTISING

By The United Press

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 20—President D. B. Robertson of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen charged today that management of the nation's railroads has embarked on a "wildcat" strike against the five operating railroad unions through a nationwide advertising campaign

It was the second time in two weeks that a top railroad union official had warned the carriers against their advertising campaign President A. F. Whitney earlier called the advertisements untruthful and misleading, and warned that they might lead to wildcat strikes by the workers

Robertson further charged that the advertisements "constitute a violation of the spirit of collective bargaining as established by the railway labor act"

He said that while negotiating conferences for new railway contracts were less than two weeks old "management representatives have decided to spend millions of dollars vilifying our proposals in a nationwide advertising campaign"

"We hold that this is a violation of the spirit of collective bargaining—a spirit given life and meaning by the railway labor act" and he added that "continued abuse of this nature can only be interpreted as deliberately provocative"

Are You Going South This Winter . . . ?
It will not be long before quite a number of people from this vicinity will be making plans to spend the winter at some southern or western point where the climate is less severe.
One part of those plans should be an arrangement with your home funeral director for any such service that might be required. Northern residents who winter in the south often are looked upon as fair game when they call a funeral director in a resort town.
We have saved much trouble—and often a considerable amount of expense—for Marion families who required funeral service away from home. We will be glad to furnish any information you desire that isn't the way all, or others, of the 1,400 students in the business school will be looking for jobs when get out.

have job promises Some spots picked out. Some will ered jobs by business firms Some will get jobs the best way they can.

Most College Graduates

Almost all the students in the school—it's a two-year course—are college graduates. Some few are not. Some have never gone to college. The non-college men there are handpicked from those wanting to get in.

But in the class that graduated last June the No. 1 man was a former Air Corps major who had never been to college. The No. 5 graduate was a non-college man, too.

In the first year all the students must take drilling in these things

Production problems—how you get work done in a factory; marketing—which means getting goods sold; finance—how to raise money, such as by floating stocks or bonds or going to a bank for it, controls—a combination of business statistical work and accounting; and administrative practices—which means how to get along with workers.

In the second year the students can specialize in what they want. One may concentrate on air transportation, another in accounting another in sales management.

This doesn't mean that the 1,400 students trot around to factories, banks and accountants for information or teaching Illustrated lectures are used in big part for the teaching

Case Histories Important

And case histories of business problems—actual problems that have come up in a certain business—are important in the training

The students are given these problems to try to solve and, through the trying, to train themselves in handling situations which will confront them when they go into business themselves

(Business outfits work with the school and turn over to it some of the problem they've had to tackle and straighten out. Without disclosing the names of the firms, the instructors then use the cases in their classrooms)

The school has a faculty of 150 trained men But through the year other men are brought in to talk to the students

These visitors range from the heads of companies to labor leaders The latter talk on the problems of labor and management as labor leaders look at them

The students who were graduated last June and have found jobs to their liking average a starting salary of $300 a month A job paying $8,000 a year was the highest paying one found by a graduate

In addition to this kind of work, business men are sent there by their firms to take advanced courses that last for 13 weeks Most of these business men who go for this special training have been in business 10 to 15 years.

Further the armed services send to the school about 60 to 70 officers to learn business administration since the armed services have to be run in a business-like way too

CANNED MUSIC BANNED IN U.S.

Petrillo Decrees an End To Making of Recordings by His Unionists.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 20—James C. Petrillo's newest edict, banning again the making of recordings by his 225,000 AFL musicians after Dec. 31, was being measured from all angles today by the shape of things to come in the radio and entertainment fields.

The head of the American Federation of Musicians issued the new directive Saturday, declaring that the members of the union were "destroying themselves" by supplying their own competition in the form of recordings.

"There will never be any more phonograph records or transcriptions made by members of the musicians' union," he said, adding that "unless a (radio) program has live music to offer, there won't be any music"

Mixed Reaction Noted

The order was received in various segments of the radio-recording industry with mixed feelings

Band Leader Ted Weems said it might "boomerang on musicians of this country and result in popular favorites being replaced by foreigners," and in California a spokesman for one recording company suggested the making of master records might be shifted to Mexico

"We've been expecting this," said one spokesman for a leading recording company The whole industry has been recording like crazy for several months" He added that most of the major record companies have an accumulation of master records 'sufficient to keep them going for years"

"People Will Decide"

"We feel that in the final analysis it will be the American people who will determine what they will hear and when and how they will hear it," said Mark Woods, president of the American Broadcasting Company "Americans love music," he added. "No individual can deprive them of it for long."

Morton Gould, the composer-conductor, said that although the recordings furnish a "medium of publicity for musicians, they are often detrimental in the long run."

"I am sure," he added, "that Petrillo has given much thought to the ban before he made his final decision," and "knew what he was doing."

Two of the brothers Crosby, Bing and Larry, expressed belief Bing's weekly transcribed radio program would not be affected by the order, but brother Everett, manager of Bing's enterprises, said he hoped for assistance from the government against the ruling.

HERBERT SEES CHANCE U.S. WILL LOSE FREEDOM

By The Associated Press

ATHENS, O., Oct 20 — Gov. Thomas J. Herbert took a look at history and at the future yesterday, detecting what he termed a historical cycle which could steer his nation back to bondage.

"Citizens and colleges must combat the apathy toward government so as to eliminate the danger of completing a historical cycle from bondage through liberty and abundance to apathy and back to bondage," the Ohio governor declared

Governor Herbert spoke to 3,000 Ohioans attending a rededication of 131-year-old Cutler hall at Ohio university—the oldest college building in the Northwest Territory.

The governor cited Gallup poll findings that large proportions of college graduates are uninterested in elections and ignorant of governmental facts.

SLOVAK LEAGUE PLANS TO AID 2,000 REFUGEES

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Oct. 20 — The Slovak League of America hopes to move to the Dominican Republic some 2,000 Czechoslovakians who fled from their native land when the Russians moved in at the close of the war, the league's president said today.

Peter P Jruchak, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa, asserted in an interview as the league opened a two-day convention that the refugees now were in Germany and Austria and faced "certain death" if they returned to Czechoslovakia while it was under Soviet dominance.

He declared the league would seek to raise $120,000 to match a similar amount offered by the International Refugee organization to transport the Czechs to the republic.

SATIRA'S EX-HUSBAND TESTIFIES AT TRIAL

By International News Service

HAVANA, Oct 20—Carl Sperry of Chicago, former husband of Patricia (Satira) Schmidt, showed up unexpectedly in Havana today as a surprise witness for the nightclub dancer who is on trial for the slaying of her lover, John L Mee.

Patricia's trial resumed this morning but adjourned five minutes later when witnesses failed to appear.

Sperry, a former sailor, divorced the dark-haired Toledo dancer in 1946 A few months later Patricia began a Caribbean romance with Mee, the Chicago lawyer whom she killed aboard his yacht last April.

Sperry flew to Havana and went immediately to the Sevilla Biltmore hotel to join his new wife, Melody Day, also a dancer

The hotel is chock full of other Chicago witnesses called by the defense, with expenses paid by Patricia's well-wisher, wealthy Amleto Battisti.

20 BILLION SET AS AID FIGURE

Report States U. S. Resources Are Sufficient To Allow That Amount.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—The Truman administration marshaled a vast array of figures today designed to prove to congress and the nation that this country can export the food, fuel and machinery western Europe is seeking for its proposed recovery program.

A report from Secretary of the Interior Krug, released by the White House, stated emphatically that the United States will be able to deliver the goods for a $20,000,000,000 aid program without impairing American resources.

Some shortages will result, "but it is impossible to make a case that a proposed aid program will have a serious impact upon our economy," Krug said. "From the standpoint of day-to-day drain, the export program is just not consequential."

Krug asserted, however, that to assure success of the undertaking this country must save grain, retain export controls to make certain shipments reach the most needy countries and gear production and transportation facilities to a high rate.

G.O.P. Is Hesitant

On Capitol Hill, Republicans generally adopted a let's-hear-more attitude, but Senator Pepper (D-Fla) criticized the report as a "nibbling" approach.

Pepper told reporters he thinks the summary makes the "timid" assumption that only such help will be extended to western Europe as will not "inconvenience" the American people.

"That is only nibbling along at the job of winning the peace," the Florida senator declared. "The obvious fact is that we cannot afford not to help Europe and the rest of the world and that it is going to require some American sacrifices to get the job done."

Won't Impair Diet

Breaking down major items, the Krug report held that wheat exports 200,000 in excess of last year's will not substantially impair the American food supply.

It found that an over-all expansion of steel facilities is needed but must be delayed because it would take too much steel to build these now.

It called for a 1948 production increase in coal, but conceded the boxcar shortage will be a "definite handicap" in getting this coal to its destination.

It found the same boxcar bottleneck hampering the distribution of industrial machinery, which is "readily available for export."

NEW ULM, Minn. — The old general store in what once was West Newton, Minn., is just as it was in 1871—though it now has a new proprietor. Miss Janet Massoupust, granddaughter of the original operator, Alexander Harkin, has given up her career of teaching to return to the family homestead and the pioneer store, unchanged since it closed its doors to trade 45 years ago.

FINAL CHAPTER IN SEA SAGA. Scene at Constitution wharf at Boston, as the 69 passengers and crew of the luxury airliner "Bermuda Sky Queen" filed down the gangplank from the U. S. Coast Guard Cutter Bibb which plucked them from the Atlantic ocean, 800 miles off Newfoundland. Hundreds of people, including news-reel cameramen and newsmen, crowded the wharf as the cutter tied up to write an end to the saga which began when the aircraft made an emergency landing in heavy seas near the vessel. Racketeers Offer $3,000 For Wedding Invitations

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Oct. 20—Black marketeers are offering as much as 750 pounds ($3,000) each for invitations to the wedding a month from today of Princess Elizabeth and Lt. Philip Mountbatten, according to rumors floating around London.

But even if some of the invitations should happend to fall into the hands of black market dealers, it still will be a trick to get inside Westminster Abbey, since the invitation cards are not transferable and the understanding is that an identification check will be made at the door.

Ross Murder Trial Enters Seventh Day

By The Associated Press

LA GRANGE, Tex., Oct. 20—The Ross murder trial, one of the most sensational ever held in Texas, enters its seventh day today following a Sunday recess.

The defendant, Dr. Lloyd I. Ross, is charged with shooting to death investment broker, Willard York, 39, a close friend, and York's wife, son and mother.

Ann York, 13½-year-old daughter of the investment broker, who escaped the May 25 ambush slaying by fleeing down a country road, identified Dr. Ross, the York's family doctor, as the man who pumped rifle bullets into her father's car.

The state indicated it will ask the death penalty for the doctor. The defense counsel bases its case on a plea of insanity.

Chief Defense Attorney Fred Blundell said he had more witnesses to take the stand today in an effort to prove that Ross was insane at the time of the alleged shooting.

Tourist Camps Combed For Slayer of Ohioan

By The Associated Press

BALTIMORE, Oct. 20—Police checked tourist camps along the Washington-Baltimore boulevard today in an effort to trace the slayer of Charles R. Vaughn, whose beaten body was found eight days ago in a Halethorpe Tourist cabin.

Lieut. Joseph E. Sarsitis, of the Baltimore county police, said bus companies having service in the area also were being contacted.

and is being held for further questioning today.

He told police that he had won the weapon in a poker game and was carrying it in a suitcase at the time of the accident.

He said he hid it at the scene of the accident and returned for it yesterday.

A resident of near the scene of the accident saw him get it yesterday and notified the highway patrol. He was apprehended on the north edge of Findlay Sunday.

All passengers in the Detroit car were Negroes except Kinkead, who was hitch-hiking to Columbus. The Detroit car was headed south on route 68.

The Downie car was going north when the accident occurred. Both cars were badly damaged.

Five Minor Traffic Accidents Reported

Five minor traffic accidents occurred near Marion over the weekend, the state highway patrol reports.

Jean Thompson, 17, of 641 Miami street, suffered bruises when the car she was driving struck a telephone pole about four miles south of Marion on route 23 at 8 a. m. Saturday. The car was damaged.

A car driven by Minnie Mallow, 56, of Richwood, and one driven by Paul Harsh of Radnor collided on route 4 about 12 miles south of Marion at 3 p. m. Friday. Minnie Mallow suffered cuts and bruises in the accident, and a passenger, Mary Rosenthall of Richwood, suffered a broken finger and cuts. They were treated by a Richwood physician. Both cars were damaged.

Cars driven by Henry Groll, 82, of Waldo, and James Good, 18, of Fostoria, collided in Waldo at 6 p. m. Saturday. Minor damage to both vehicles resulted.

Cars driven by Gene Lawson, 20, of Harpster, and Paul Bowman, 22, of near Marion, collided on route 4 about three miles north of Marion at 1:30 a. m. Sunday. Both cars were slightly damaged.

A car driven by John Gill, 18, of Galion, skidded and overturned on route 30-S two miles south of Galion Saturday at 6:25 p. m. The car was extensively damaged but Gill was not injured.

Five Traffic Accidents Reported in City

Five traffic accidents were reported by city police as occurring over the weekend, one resulting in a minor injury to a 4-year old boy.

Nichlas Black, age 4, of 208 Pennsylvania avenue, was struck by an automobile driven by Adele Emma Kimball, 40, of near Marion, at 12:27 p. m. Saturday. Miss Kimball told police she was driving north on Pennsylvania avenue when the boy, apparently going east on Church street, ran into the front of her car at the intersection of Church and Pennsylvania. The boy suffered a bruised left hip and was taken to his home for treatment.

Cecil W. Berk, 45, of 360 Oak street, traveling north on Main street at 1:16 a. m. Sunday, attempted to make a left turn onto London street when an auto driven by Patrick F. Ring, 23, of 231 West Fairground street, struck his car in the rear, doing minor damage to the trunk and gas tank.

A car operated by Dorothy I. Keck, 22, of Shelby, and William H. Pine, 17, of Prospect, figured in a minor collision at the intersection of Farming street and North Main street at 8:12 Sunday night. Police said Miss Keck was traveling north on Main street when the auto driven by Pine pulled out from Farming street and struck her auto. Damage was slight.

A Schaffner-Denzer ambulance pulled out of a driveway at 709 South Prospect street and to avoid hitting the ambulance, an auto driven by Earl J. Crowe, 21, of Green Camp, subsequently ran into a parked car owned by Robert E. White, National City bank president. The accident occurred at 10:50 p. m. Saturday. Police reported that the damage was not serious.

Mildred E. Miller, 39, Canton, reported at 8:45 p. m. Saturday that a car she had parked in front of Central Junior High school on West Center street had been sideswiped, resulting in minor damage to the car. Miss Miller told police the auto was unoccupied at the time but that when she first noted the damage she found a note pinned under the windshield wiper from some unidentified witness who saw the accident and noted the license number. Police said that the hit and run car was from Marion.

CHANGE IN PAY RULE FOR OVERTIME URGED

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—Elimination of all $75-a-week workers from the wage-hour law guaranteeing overtime pay after 40 hours was proposed to a congressional committee today.

Stanley I. Posner, a Washington attorney representing the National Industrial Launderers and Cleaners association, said congress never intended such workers to enjoy the shelter of the act.

Posner proposed three other amendments in testimony prepared for a house labor subcommittee which plans a month of hearings on the nine year old statute.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. McConnell (R-Pa), held similar hearing last spring on the 40 cents an hour minimum wage specified under the law. Several bills are pending to hike this figure at least 50 per cent.

In addition to calling for the elimination of all employes paid $75 a week or more, regardless of their duties, Posner suggested:

1. Exemption of employes, such as salesmen, who spend most of their working time away from their employer's establishment and hence are not under his direct supervision all the time.

2. Exemption of employes whose hours and working conditions are covered by union contracts.

3. Limiting the law to the manufacturing, mining, and processing industries whose products are in interstate commerce. State laws should cover all other workers, Posner asserted.

Entire Nation Enjoys Top October Weather

By The Associated Press

Temperatures ranging from 10 to 20 degrees above October normals were in prospect again today for virtually the entire nation.

The weather bureau at Chicago said the mercery would climb to near 80 in all sections of the country except parts of Washington and Oregon where a showery period has prevailed for several days.

From the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico, the skies generally were clear, the weather bureau said, following readings last night no lower than 35 to 40 degrees in the middlewest.

"This very beautiful weather appears to have settled down for an indefinite stay," the forecaster said, adding that there was no immediate change in sight.

LEPER ASYLUM

By International News Service

RIBERALTA, Bolivia—A new Catholic leper asylum has taken shape in the Bolivian jungle where the lepers may worship in their own little chapel, thanks to Father John Gallagher, a Maryknoll priest from Oakland, Calif. The idea had its start during one of Father Gallagher's mission trips. He visited the settlement of Agua Dulce and found the outcasts living unattended in poverty and misery. He organized the small colony and built a chapel and dispensary.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

As soon as my eyes fell on my father's face, I knew that [illegible] deeply concerned. I know [illegible] beloved line in it so well [illegible] realized it must be an un[illegible] emergency which was [illegible] him.

[illegible] ashamed, when his gal[illegible] undaunted eyes met mine, [illegible] of the worries over things [illegible] neglected and of the secret [illegible] which I had experienced at [illegible] of helping him once more. [illegible] mattered to me now ex[illegible] his plight, whatever it was, [illegible] marshalled all my faculties [illegible] him.

[illegible] of course my presence at [illegible] hotel was not indispensable to [illegible] husband, to my child, to my [illegible]-in-law, to Mary, or to my [illegible]. Others could care adequate[illegible] the human beings, and [illegible] Veritzen would simply have [illegible] postpone his opening a bit, I [illegible]—not without a bit of mali[illegible] glee at the great man's discomfort, for I knew that even he would not dare question my father's need of me if "the Chief" should claim my services.

"Margaret!" my father exclaimed, as usual seeing no one else in the room until he had greeted me. He crossed to me swiftly, embraced and kissed me tenderly, then turned to Dicky whom he dearly loves, both as the son he never had until, ending a heart-breaking quest for years, he found me after my marriage, and also as a valued associate in his government underground work.

"Dicky!" he said, pressing his hands warmly, "I am so glad to see you, my dear boy! But I am afraid you will not be so overjoyed to see me when I explain my need to you."

I never was prouder of my husband than when he put his hand on his father-in-law's shoulder and made earnest and sincere reply to the tentative plea of the older man.

"I don't think you need words, Dad, to tell you that Madge and I are always ready to aid any need of yours, whatever it may be."

"No, I don't need words," my father agreed, "and I bless you both for your unfailing co-operation. But sit down, everybody, while I explain what I need."

I tried to keep my eyes from straying to the door from which he had come, but I found it hard work, for I was sure that the fugitive of whom Lillian had spoken was in the room behind that door, and that in a few minutes we would look upon his familiar face—my intuition told me that it would be a familiar one.

But when my father spoke directly to me, my eyes went to his face and stayed there.

"Margaret," he said, "I must ask a few days of your time and help—I trust not more than a week, perhaps considerably less but I wish to know what I can do to aid you in your present stressful program—Mary, Faith, Mother Graham, the writing of your play, but, of course, no one can help you with that last."

"The play is the least of my worries," I told him serenely. "Mr. Veritzen wishes the writing of it finished in six weeks, wishes me to be far enough along to help him select the cast in two weeks, wishes to put it into production in four months. But he simply will have to 'dree his weird.' Your work comes first with me, always. You know that."

"Yes, thank God, I do," my father replied fervently. "But, do you require the presence of Mary, or of anyone else while you are finishing your play?"

"I can answer that question for her, Dad," Dicky put in. "The leastest she has of any human being, even her nearest and dearest, the better—and speedier—work she'll do!"

"That is what I thought," my father said, "and it fits in very well with my plan. In the work I wish you to do for me, you will have solitude—except for Katie and Jim—a good three-fourths of your time. You may work on your play undisturbed."

My pulse began to pound. This must mean that I was going to see my Sag Harbor farmhouse home very soon. But my joy was dampened by the evident corollary that no one of my family was to accompany me.

"Now what about your other charges?" my father asked. "Dicky will remain at the hotel. I know, Son," as Dicky made an involuntary dissenting gesture. "I'd like to send you with her but I may need you in the city, and she will be adequately guarded."

"That goes without saying, when you send her anywhere," Dicky said. "And I will be able to pinch-hit for her with Faith and my mother, anyway."

"And with Mary," I said resolutely. "You know how you always are able to cheer her up."

"Always the little sunshine-spreader, that's me," Dicky said smugly, but I ignored him, and turned to my father.

"Everything really is under perfect control," I told him smiling. "Mary is almost completely convalescent, and Katharine is taking excellent care of her. Olina has begged for the privilege of seeing Faith to and from school, Mother Graham will be content with Dicky's daily visits, especially if she thinks I am absorbed in my play, and if I can have time for work on that, the arrangement for me to help you appears to be perfect."

"Then, in that case," my father said, moving swiftly toward the door leading to the smaller room beyond. "I will bring in your traveling companions."

Marion Angels Slip By Dayton Rockets, 7-6

Locals Snap Two-Game Losing Streak To Win Fourth Victory of 1947 Season

Marion Safety Cab Angels snapped a two-game losing streak Saturday night by edging the Dayton Rockets 7-6, before a crowd of about 1,000 at Harding stadium.

The win was the fourth of the season for the Cabbies, their second in the Inter-State conference. They have two conference losses.

Dayton opened the scoring in the first quarter after an exchange of punts had put the Angels in possession of the ball on their own 16. Ray Nardini, Dayton left tackle, charged through the line and recovered a bad pass from center which went past Bill Scott's head. Nardini's recovery in the end zone went for a Dayton touchdown. Nagley's attempted conversion was wide.

Marion Comes Back

Marion came right back to score, marching the ball from the kickoff in a sustained drive downfield.

Dave Lee ran the kickoff from his own 19 to the 45, and a Bud Reams to Max Roseberry pass sent the pigskin on to the Dayton 32. Two plays later, Leo Belknap, running from the quarterback slot swept around right end through five Rocketmen for 22 yards and the touchdown. Bob Ivey's spectacular blocking cleared the way for Belknap's touchdown sweep.

John Cheney's first attempted conversion hit the uprights and bounced back, but Dayton was offside and he got another chance. He made good his second kick for the winning point and last score of the game.

The second quarter was an in-out affair with neither team threatening to score.

Have Backs to Wall

The second half found the Angels with their backs to the wall but their defenses held against determined Dayton threats and the Cabbies managed to kick out of trouble.

Climax of the game came in the final period when Dayton advanced to the Marion five-yard line where it was first down and goal to go for the Rockets. In three plays the Rockets moved to the two-yard line, and Dayton Coach Alex Rado sent in Nagley to try a field goal, but the kick was wide.

Marion took the ball on the 20 and advanced to the 25 when the game ended.

Earlier in the quarter, Bob Ivey nipped another Rocket threat when he recovered a fumble on the Marion six. The Rockets were put into scoring position when Ivey's quick kick a few plays before was blocked by Dayton and they took over on the 12.

The Angel defense, anchored by Max Roseberry and Martin Lewis, was all that Angel Coach Gene Fetter could want, but the offensive action lacked spark.

Fullback Dave Lee played his final game with the Angels. He had to return to the Navy on Sunday. Lee had been playing with the Angels during his furlough. He was the lad, incidentally, who won Marion Harding's single game in 1945 when his two good conversions stopped Ashland, 14-12.

The Angels meet Sheridan, Ind., Merchants here next Saturday night.

12 Major 11's Stay Unbeaten

Several Face Battles Saturday in Effort To Remain That Way, However.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 20—A dozen major college football teams still own all-victorious records today but several of them will have to do some fancy stepping Saturday to keep from joining eight others which were tumbled from the ranks of the unbeaten and untied during the past weekend.

Such previously undefeated elevens as Minnesota, Vanderbilt, Yale, Maryland, William and Mary, Marquette, Boston College and Muhlenberg dropped out of the all-victorious class and now can concentrate on returning the compliment to such other hopefuls as may cross their paths.

Among the toplight aggregations, those whose perfect records survived the weekend firing include Michigan, Notre Dame, Texas, California, Georgia Tech, Pennsylvania, Penn State, Southern Methodist, Baylor, Wake Forest, Virginia and West Virginia.

Probably the toughest chore immediately ahead for any of this select group is that faced by the Golden Bears of California, who tangle with Southern California's unbeaten but once-tied Trojans at Berkeley Saturday in one of the top games of the day.

California Opens Bid

California opened its bid for the Pacific Coast conference crown by clipping Washington State, 21-6, for its fifth straight triumph Saturday—a development considerably less impressive than the 48-6 haymaker which Southern Cal landed on Oregon State.

U.C.L.A., one of the teams involved in a three-cornered scrap for the coast title and Rose Bowl honors, steps out of conference play to meet the invasion of Southern Methodist, which kept its state clean by blanking Rice, 14-0, while U.C.L.A. was trampling Stanford, 39-6.

Texas, which downed Arkansas, 21-6, to clear its first southwest conference hurdle, goes after its sixth win of the year against Rice at Austin and Baylor invades Texas A. and M. in quest of its fifth in a row.

Michigan, looking more and more like the class of the country after crushing Northwestern 49-21, will be at home against Minnesota, while Illinois, 40-13 conqueror of Minnesota and still unbeaten but once-tied, invades Purdue in Big Nine engagements.

Indiana vs. Northwestern

Indiana and Northwestern hook up at Northwestern in another Big Nine test but Iowa, which tied Ohio State, 13-13, invades Notre Dame, 31-0 winner over Nebraska.

Kentucky, which ended Vanderbilt's dream, 14-0, travels to Michigan State and Texas Christian, 26-0, winner over Texas A. and M., invades Oklahoma, held to a 13-13 tie by Kansas.

Duke, which handed Maryland its first loss, 19-7, invades Wake Forest to attempt more of the same in the Southern conference. Alabama, after dropping Tennessee, 10-0, goes to Georgia, Auburn to Tulane and Louisiana State to Vanderbilt in the Southeastern loop.

Georgia Tech, which made it four straight with a 27-7 win over Auburn, coasts against The Citadel.

Pennsylvania, which turned back Columbia, 34-14, entertains a Navy crew that found itself and whipped Cornell, 38-19, and once-tied Army visits Columbia for two of the east's high spots.

Penn State and West Virginia collide at State College with one of them due to depart the all-victorious scene. Penn State polished off Syracuse Saturday and West Virginia downed N.Y.U., both by 40-0.

TOUCH GRID ELEVENS PLAY FOUR GAMES

Pearl, Greenwood, St. Mary, Silver Win; Oak Takes Forfeit.

Pearl street grade school gridders, Greenwood, St. Mary, Silver street, and Oak won football games Saturday afternoon.

Pearl shutout Forest Lawn 7-0, as passes from White to Scott connected for the touchdown and extra point.

Greenwood took Olney, 9-6. A Nash to Mull pass scored the Olney touchdown, and Nash sent one to Hammon for the extra point. Stauffer scored a safety to add two more points. Bob Gruber ran over the single Olney score.

St. Mary swamped Oakland, 26-6, with a two-way Dan Merchant and Handy Anderson aerial attack accounting for the St. Mary scoring. Merchant chucked two good ones to Anderson, and Anderson fired two to Merchant. Merchant scored a safety for the extra two points. McPann ran over Oakland's touchdown.

Silver outscored North Main, 21-18. A Schmidt to Robinson pass netted North Main their opening score. Schmidt made another on an end run, and scored the third on a pass from Mooney. Watts went an around end for two Silver street scores, tossed a pass to Hunt for another, and made one point after the touchdown. A safety gave Silver the winning margin.

Oak won over Glenwood, 1-0, by a forfeit.

RAIL RETIREMENT BOARD REPRESENTATIVES COMING

Two representatives of the United States Railroad Retirement Board will be in Marion Wednesday, Oct. 22, to speak to a special meeting of railroad employes and their families.

They are William J. Fischer and Thomas F. Maurer. The meeting is scheduled to begin promptly at 7 p. m. and will be held in the Marion Central Labor Union hall at 134 East Church street.

At the meeting, being sponsored by the various brotherhoods representing the railroad employes, Mr. Fischer and Mr. Maurer will explain the recent amendments to the Railroad Retirement Act. It is anticipated by the committee in charge that a question and answer period will be conducted during the meeting for the benefit of those who have personal questions regarding the pension and amendments.

Acting temporary chairman of the committee is D. J. Finley.

"Ohio State Has Edge on Pitttsburgh? Crazy!" Says Fesler

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 20—Pittsburgh's Panthers, who will meet every team they've opposed this season, would appear the natural underdog in Saturday's homecoming town contest with Ohio State but Buckeye Coach Wes Fesler declared today he doesn't see why.

"Anyone," he said, "who figures we have an edge on Pittsburgh is crazy. This is their big game; it's homecoming. Since I was their coach last year, this is the game the Pitt boys want to win."

The protest comes counter to normal optimism felt here about Ohio State's grand comeback last Saturday, tying Iowa's Hawkeyes 13-13 by two touchdowns in the final eight minutes.

Everybody, it seems, except Fesler, regards that finish as the season's turning point; that there'll be no more utter disappointments like the Purdue and Southern California games when the Buckeyes were badly mauled.

But events immediately following the game, plus Wes' strident objection to Ohio State's installation as favorite over Pitt, will strengthen a growing feeling among newsmen that Fesler is in process of an unexpected turnabout in his relations with the press.

Beyond admitting at the customary post-game news conference Saturday that his boys had "caught fire and proved themselves the kind of kids I've told you all along they were," Fesler had little to say—for publication—about the past, the present or the future.

A handful of questioners sat in with him for almost 45 minutes and went away feeling defeated. The usually voluble Fesler—who since his return to Ohio State last winter has both amazed and pleased press and public with his candidness — exhibited a wariness with reporters that was strange as the poker-face he wore.

It was difficult to believe the moral victory over Iowa had stirred him, except when he kept repeating: "They really battled, didn't they? If we could have had the ball for five more minutes we'd have won."

Except to hew to this line without deviation, Fesler ruled out almost all other questioning about the game and the end results. Questions the newsmen thought pertinent were pressed, but nine-tenths of these were answered "off the record," if at all.

When the conference ended, one of the group stopped at the door, turned and said:

"How about just one smile, Wes? So I can go home and know we didn't lose this one."

Fesler provided the smile, but there wasn't anything spontaneous about it.

On the way out, a reporter said: "Acted like he was making certain he wouldn't put his foot in his mouth, didn't he? Almost everything off the record. Guess he's decided to clam up—for publication anyway—until the team wins a few."

CUBS APPROVE TIEUP WITH CHICAGO IN '48

Satisfaction with the working agreement between the Marion baseball club and the Chicago Cub farm system was expressed at a board of directors meeting of the Marion club last week.

President W. Dexter Hazen said he thought the Chicago group were satisfied with the contract with Marion and that signing an agreement for next year would be only a matter of form which would await the minor league meeting in December in Miami.

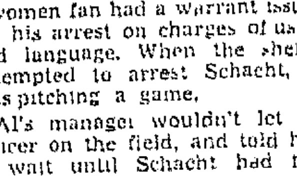
At the meeting last week at Hotel Harding the same board of directors and officers were re-elected for next year.

The officers, W. Dexter Hazen, president; Hugo Malo, vice president, and Forest Coss, secretary-treasurer. The board is composed of George Alber, Larry Axe, Forest Coss, L. E. Farquear, George Flora, B. B. Hall, Albert L. Hamburg, W. Dexter Hazen, Richard Lau, Robert Maag, Hugo Malo, John Marshall, Ben Peterson, Wilson B. Tway and Harry Weller.

Manager Nelson Burbrink who gave Marion their first, first division team, will be moved elsewhere in the Cub organization, probably to Macon, Ga., of the South Atlantic league which is class A.

A large delegation from the Marion club is planning to attend the minor league meeting Dec. 3-4-5 in Miami, Fla.

Plans for next year include a benefit game to be played here during the regular season to be sponsored by the Marion Booster's club to aid athletic teams at Harding and St. Mary High schools.



When Al Schacht was pitching for Rochester many years ago, a women fan had a warrant issued for his arrest on charges of using bad language. When the sheriff attempted to arrest Schacht, Al was pitching a game.

Al's manager wouldn't let the officer on the field, and told him to wait until Schacht had finished pitching. A few minutes later, Schacht tossed a home run ball to an opposing player, sending Rochester down to defeat.

The manager disgustedly stuck his head out of the dugout, spotted the sheriff in the stands and yelled:

"Hey, Sheriff, here's your man. Come and get him."

BROTHER WHO FOUND BABE RUTH STRICKEN

Rev. Gilbert, Bambino's First Sponsor, Dies in Church.

By The Associated Press

LOWELL, Mass., Oct. 20—The man who first set Babe Ruth's steps on the road to baseball immortality is dead.

Rev. Brother Gilbert, C.F.X., 62, died yesterday from a cerebral hemorrhage while kneeling in his pew during retreat services at Keith academy, Roman Catholic boys' high school where he had been superior for nine years.

In New York, Ruth said "his death comes as a great personal shock. It deprives America and the young kids of a great man."

It was back in 1914 when Brother Gilbert, always interested in athletics and boys, took time off from his baseball coaching at Mount St. Joseph's college in Baltimore, Md., to look over a couple of proteges at nearby St. Mary's Industrial school.

Standing near the sidelines, Brother Gilbert spotted a gangling, left-handed catcher with a great throwing arm. The kid looked awkward, catching in only a pair of blue overalls and a mask.

That was the first time Brother Gilbert saw George Herman Ruth, who went on to become baseball's greatest home run hitter.

On the strength of the 19-year-old's performance that afternoon Brother Gilbert took him to his friend, Manager Jack Dunn of the Baltimore Orioles of the International league. Dunn developed the youngster as a pitcher.

Ruth was sold in that year to Harry Frazee's Boston Red Sox. He alternated between pitching and playing the outfield, and in 1919 smashed 29 home runs. Sold in 1920 to the New York Yankees, he began a 15-year reign there, setting his record of 60 homers in 1927.

Browns Win "Breather", 31-28

Coach Points to Near-Upset as Evidence There's No Need To "Break Up" Cleveland.

By LARRY SMITH

Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND, Oct. 20—Not too many months ago, there were some who were advocating the breakup of the Cleveland Browns—for the good of the All America football conference.

Coach Paul Brown of the champion Cleveland Browns has not become a convert to that manner of thinking.

His best argument is the 31-28 win his Browns eked out yesterday over the hitherto prone Chicago Rockets.

"There are no breathers in this league, as you guys found out today," Brown cracked as he held his regular post mortem before the boys who write pieces for the newspapers.

Paul wouldn't say so in that many words, but he had hoped to give his hard-pressed first stringers a rest in anticipation of a grueling struggle next Sunday with the San Francisco Forty-Niners for first place leadership in loop's western division.

The Rockets turned a hoped-for breather into a bitter struggle when they narrowed a 24-7 Cleveland lead with a 21-point barrage in the final period.

Most Explosive Period

That period erupted as one of the most explosive in the history of the circuit as the Browns also notched a pair of touchdowns for a total of 35 points in 15 minutes of play.

In that final quarter Ray Ramsey and Sam Vacanti sparked an offensive that netted three touchdowns and had the Browns reeling at the end.

Ramsey, fleet halfback from Bradley Tech, snagged a pair of payoff tosses from Vacanti and scampered 11 yards for a third tally.

Lou Groza started the Browns off with a 21-yard field goal in the opening period but the Rockets moved ahead early in the second quarter when Vacanti pitched to Elroy Hirsch for 37 yards and a touchdown on the first play of the second quarter.

The Brown regained the lead just before the close of the first half when Otto Graham passed to Bill Boedeker for a 60-yard gain to the Rockets' 22 and Marion Motley took it the rest of the way.

The Browns widened their margin in the third period when Mac Speedie snatched a toss from Graham, out-faked three Chicago defenders and sped 25 yards for a touchdown.

Cleveland moved into its biggest lead of the game a few minutes later, when Edgar (Special Delivery) Jones and Motley breaking away for long gains. Jones went out from the two to give the Browns a 24 to 7 lead.

The Rockets then took their turn at scoring, moving 60 yards with Ramsey going 11 yards around left end for the payoff.

Jones again sparked the Browns to their final tally on a 64-yard drive, but the Rockets then struck back with deadly fury as Ramsey gathered in two tosses from Vacanti to touchdowns.

The Browns controlled the ball in the final 20 seconds and that was it.

STANDARD MILK REGULATIONS FOR THE CITY OF MARION, OHIO

Regulations defining "milk" and certain "milk products", "milk producer", "pasteurization", etc., prohibiting the sale of adulterated and misbranded milk and milk products, requiring permits for the sale of milk and milk products, regulating the inspection of dairy farms and milk plants, the examination, grading, labeling, placarding, pasteurization, regrading, distribution, and sale of milk and milk products, providing for the publishing of milk grades, the construction of future dairies and milk plants, the enforcement of these regulations, and the fixing of penalties.

Be it ordered by the Board of Health of the City of Marion, Ohio, as follows.

Section 1. Definitions—The following definitions shall apply in the interpretation and the enforcement of these regulations:

A. Milk—Milk is hereby defined to be the lacteal secretion obtained by the complete milking of one or more healthy cows, excluding that obtained within 15 days before and 5 days after calving, or such longer period as may be necessary to render the milk practically colostrum free, which contains not less than 8 per cent of milk solids not fat, and not less than 3¼ per cent of milk fat.

B. Milk fat or butter fat—Milk fat or butter fat is the fat of milk.

C. Cream and sour cream.—Cream is a portion of milk which contains not less than 18 per cent milk fat. Sour cream is cream the acidity of which is more than 0.20 per cent, expressed as lactic acid.

D. Skimmed milk.—Skimmed milk is milk from which a sufficient portion of milk fat has been removed to reduce its milk-fat percentage to less than 3¼ per cent.

E. Milk or skimmed-milk beverage—A milk beverage or a skimmed-milk beverage is a food compound or confection consisting of milk, or skimmed milk, as the case may be, to which has been added a syrup or flavor consisting of wholesome ingredients.

F. Buttermilk.—Buttermilk is a product resulting from the churning of milk or cream, or from the souring or treatment by a lactic acid or other culture of milk, skimmed milk, reconstituted skimmed milk, evaporated or condensed milk or skimmed milk, or milk or skimmed-milk powder. It contains not less than 8 per cent of milk solids not fat.

G. Vitamin D milk.—Vitamin D milk is milk the vitamin D content of which has been increased by a method and in an amount approved by the health officer.

H. Reconstituted or recombined milk and cream.—Reconstituted or recombined milk is a product resulting from the recombining of milk constituents with water, and which complies with the standards for milk fat and solids not fat of milk as defined herein. Reconstituted or recombined cream is a product resulting from the combination of dried cream, butter, or butter fat with cream, milk, skimmed milk, or water.

I. Homogenized milk.—Homogenized milk is milk which has been treated in such manner as to insure break-up of the fat globules to such an extent that after 48 hours storage no visible cream separation occurs on the milk, and the fat percentage of the top 100 cc of milk in a quart bottle, or of proportionate volumes in containers of other sizes, does not differ by more than 10 per cent of itself from the fat percentage of the remaining milk as determined after thorough mixing.

J. Milk products.—Milk products shall be taken to mean and include cream, sour cream, homogenized milk, vitamin D milk, buttermilk, skimmed milk, reconstituted or recombined milk and cream, milk beverages, skimmed-milk beverages, and any other product made by the addition of any substance to milk or any of these products and used for similar purposes and designated as a milk product by the health officer.

K. Pasteurization. — The terms "pasteurization", "pasteurized", and similar terms shall be taken to refer to the process of heating every particle of milk or milk products to at least 143° F., and holding at such temperature for at least 30 minutes, or to at least 160° F., and holding to such temperature for at least 15 seconds, in approved and properly operated equipment: Provided, that nothing contained in this definition shall be construed as disbarring any other process which has been demonstrated to be equally efficient and is approved by the State Health authority.

L. Adulterated milk and milk products.—Any milk or milk product which contains any unwholesome substance, or which if defined in these regulations does not conform with its definition, or which carries a grade label unless such grade label has been awarded by the health officer and not revoked, shall be deemed adulterated and misbranded.

M. Milk producer.—A milk producer is any person who owns or controls one or more cows a part or all of the milk or milk products from which is sold or offered for sale.

N. Milk distributor.—A milk distributor is any person who offers for sale or sells to another any milk or milk products for human consumption as such.

O. Dairy or dairy farm.—A dairy farm is any place or premises where one or more cows are kept, a part or all of the milk or milk products from which is sold or offered for sale.

P. Milk plant.—A milk plant is any place or premises or establishment where milk or milk products are collected, handled, processed, stored, bottled, pasteurized, or prepared for distribution.

Q. Health officer. — The term "health officer" shall mean the health authority of the City of Marion, Ohio, or his authorized representative.

R. Average bacterial plate count, direct microscopic count, reduction time, and cooling temperature. — Average bacterial plate count and average direct microscopic count shall be taken to mean the logarithmic average, and average reduction time and average cooling temperature shall be taken to mean the arithmetic average, of the respective results of the last four consecutive samples, taken upon separate days, irrespective of the date of grading or regrading.

S. Grading period.—The grading period shall be such period of time as the health officer may designate within which grades shall be determined for all milk and milk products, provided that the grading period shall in no case exceed 6 months.

T. Person.—The word "person" as used in these regulations shall mean "person, firm, corporation, or association".

U. And/or. — Where the term "and/or" is used "and" shall apply where possible, otherwise "or" shall apply.

Section 2. The sale of adulterated, misbranded, or ungraded milk or milk products prohibited.—No person shall within the City of Marion, Ohio, produce, sell, offer, or expose for sale, or have in possession with intent to sell any milk or milk product which is adulterated, misbranded, or ungraded. It shall be unlawful for any person, elsewhere than in a private home, to have in possession any adulterated, misbranded, or ungraded milk or milk products.

Section 3. Permits.—It shall be unlawful for any person to bring or receive into the City of Marion, Ohio, for sale, or to sell, or to offer for sale therein, or to have in storage where milk or milk products are sold, or served any milk or milk products defined in these regulations, who does not possess a permit from the health officer. A fee of one dollar ($1.00) shall be charged for each permit, said permit shall be issued annually in January of each year and all permits issued on and after the first day of July in any year shall be issued upon payment of fifty cents (50c) for each permit issued for a half year and no permit shall be issued for less than six months. Fees for permit shall be collected by the "health officer" upon issuing a permit and turned into the City Treasurer.

Only a person who complies with the requirements of these regulations shall be entitled to receive and retain such a permit.

Such a permit may be suspended by the health officer, or revoked after an opportunity for a hearing by the health officer, upon the violation by the holder of any of the terms of these regulations.

Section 3-A.—In order to defray the cost of inspection of dairy farms, milk processing plants, the inspection of milk and milk products, an inspection fee of 3c for each 100 lbs of milk received by the distributor shall be charged to and paid by the distributor for all milk received, handled or used by said distributor; the said inspection charges shall be paid monthly on or before the 15th day of the month following the month for which the charge is made. Such inspection fee shall be collected by the "health officer" and turned into the City Treasurer.

Section 3-B. This inspection fee will be in effect immediately upon adoption of said regulations. Each plant must make a report on a form as prescribed by the Health Officer, as of the last day of the month, to the Clerk of the Board of Health, listing the total milk received, handled or used by said plant. In the event that the Board of Health is of the opinion that the books of a milk plant should be audited to determine the truth and accuracy of the monthly reports filed by said milk plant, then, and in that event, the Board of Health shall have the right to audit the milk plant's books for the purpose of ascertaining the total milk received, handled or used by said plant; the expenses and costs of such an audit is to be charged against the milk plant whose books are so examined. Any falsification in reporting shall result in the revocation of the milk plant permit.

Section 3-C.—The failure of any milk dealer or distributor, for the period of more than thirty (30) days, to pay the required above inspection charges, or upon failure to comply with the above rules and regulations, shall be cause for the revocation or with-drawal of the permission granted such dealer or distributor to distribute milk and milk products in the City of Marion, Ohio, or to dispose of said products to others for distribution within the City of Marion.

Section 4.—Labeling and placarding.—All bottles, cans, packages, and other containers enclosing milk or any milk product defined in these regulations shall be plainly labeled or marked with (1) the name of the contents as given in the definitions in these regulations; (2) the grade of the contents; (3) the word "pasteurized" only if the contents have been pasteurized; (4) the word "raw" only if the contents are raw; (5) the phrase "for pasteurization" if the contents are to be pasteurized; (6) the name of the producer if the contents are raw, and the name of the plant at which the contents were pasteurized, if the contents are pasteurized; and (7) in the case of vitamin D milk, the designation "Vitamin D Milk" and the source of the vitamin D. The label or mark shall be in letters of a size, kind, and color approved by the health officer and shall contain no marks or words which are misleading.

Every restaurant, cafe, soda fountain, or other establishment serving milk or milk products shall display at all times, in a place designated by the health officer, a notice approved by the health officer, stating the lowest grade of milk and/or milk products served.

Section 5.—Inspection of dairy farms and milk plants for the purpose of grading or regrading.—At least once during each grading period the health officer shall inspect all dairy farms and all milk plants whose milk or milk products are intended for consumption within the City of Marion, Ohio. In case the health officer discovers the violation of any item of sanitation, he shall make a second inspection after a lapse of such time as he deems necessary for the defect to be remedied, but not before the lapse of 3 days; and the second inspection shall be used in determining the grade of milk and/or milk products. Any violation of the same item of these regulations on two consecutive inspections shall call for immediate degrading.

One copy of the inspection report shall be posted by the health officer in a conspicuous place upon an inside wall of one of the dairy farm or milk plant buildings, and said inspection report shall not be defaced or removed by any person except the health officer. Another copy of the inspection report shall be filed with the records of the health department.

Section 6. The examination of milk and milk products.—During each grading period at least four samples of milk and cream from each dairy farm and each milk plant shall be taken on separate days and examined by the health officer. Samples of other milk products may be taken and examined by the health officer as often as he deems necessary. Samples of milk and milk products from stores, cafes, soda fountains, restaurants, and other places where milk or milk products are sold shall be examined as often as the health officer may require. Bacterial plate counts and direct microscopic counts shall be made in conformity with the latest standard methods recommended by the American Public Health Association. Examinations may include such other chemical and physical determinations as the health officer may deem necessary for the detection of adulteration, these examinations to be made in accordance with the latest standard methods of the American Public Health Association and the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists. Samples may be taken by the health officer at any time prior to the final delivery of the milk or milk products. All proprietors of stores, cafes, restaurants, soda fountains, and other similar places shall furnish the health officer, upon his request, with the names of all distributors from whom their milk and milk products are obtained. Bio-assays of the vitamin D content of vitamin D milk shall be made when required by the health officer in a laboratory approved by him for such examination.

Whenever the average bacterial count, the average reduction time, or the average cooling temperature falls beyond the limit for the grade then held, the health officer shall send written notice thereof to the person concerned, and shall take an additional sample, but not before the lapse of 3 days, for determining a new average in accordance with Section 1 (R). Violation of the grade requirement by the new average or by any subsequent average during the remainder of the current grading period shall call for immediate degrading or suspension of the permit, unless the last individual result is within the grade limit.

Section 7.—The grading of milk and milk products.—At least once every 6 months the health officer shall announce the grades of all milk and milk products delivered by all producers or distributors and ultimately consumed within the City of Marion, Ohio. Said grades shall be based upon the following standards, the grading of milk products being identical with the grading of milk except that the bacterial standards shall be doubled in the case of cream, and omitted in the case of sour cream and buttermilk. Vitamin D milk shall be only of a grade A pasteurized milk.

Grade A raw milk.—Grade A raw milk is raw milk the average bacterial plate count of which as determined under Section 1 (R) and 6 of these regulations does not exceed 200,000 per cubic centimeter, or the average direct microscopic count of which does not exceed 200,000 if clumps are counted, or 800,000 if individual organisms are counted, or the average reduction time of which is not less than six hours; and which is produced upon dairy farms conforming with all of the following items of sanitation.

Item 1r. Cows, tuberculosis and other diseases—Except as provided hereinafter, a tuberculin test of all herds and additions thereto shall be made before any milk therefrom is sold, and at least once every 12 months thereafter by a licensed veterinarian approved by the State livestock sanitary authority. Said tests shall be made and reactors disposed of in accordance with the requirements approved by the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Animal Industry, for accredited herds. A certificate signed by the veterinarian or attested to by the health officer and filed with the health officer shall be evidence of the above test: Provided, That in modified accredited counties in which the modified accredited area plan is applied to the dairy herds the modified accredited area system approved by the United States Bureau of Animal Industry shall be accepted in lieu of annual testing.

For other diseases such tests and examinations as the health officer may require shall be made at intervals and by methods prescribed by him and any diseased animals or reactors shall be disposed of as he may require.

Item 2r. Dairy barn, lighting.—A dairy or milking barn shall be required and in such sections thereof where cows are milked windows shall be provided and kept clean and so arranged as to insure adequate light properly distributed, and when necessary shall be provided with adequate supplementary artificial light.

Item 3r. Dairy barn, air space and ventilation.—Such sections of all dairy barns where cows are kept or milked shall be well ventilated and shall be so arranged as to avoid overcrowding.

Item 4r. Dairy barn, floors—The floors and gutters of such parts of all dairy barns in which cows are milked shall be constructed of concrete or other approved impervious and easily cleaned material, shall be graded to drain properly, and shall be kept clean and in good repair. No horses, pigs, fowl, calves, etc. shall be permitted in parts of the barn used for milking.

Item 5r. Dairy barn, walls and ceiling.—The walls and ceilings of all dairy barns shall be whitewashed once each year or painted once every 2 years, or oftener, if necessary, or finished in an approved manner, and shall be kept clean and in good repair. In case there is a second story above that portion of the barn in which cows are milked, the ceiling shall be tight. If the feed room adjoins the milking space, it shall be separated therefrom by a dust-tight partition and door. No feed shall be stored in the milking portion of the barn.

Item 6r. Dairy barn, cowyard—All cowyards shall be graded and drained as well as practicable and kept clean.

Item 7r. Manure disposal.—All manure shall be removed and stored or disposed of in such manner as best to prevent the breeding of flies therein or the access of cows to piles thereof.

Item 8r. Milk house or room, construction.—There shall be provided a milk house or milk room in which the cooling, handling, and storing of milk and milk products and the washing, bactericidal treatment, and storing of milk containers and utensils shall be done. (a) The milk house or room shall be provided with a tight floor constructed of concrete or other impervious material in good repair, and graded to provide proper drainage. (b) It shall have walls and ceilings of such construction as to permit easy cleaning, and shall be well painted or finished in an approved manner. (c) It shall be well lighted and ventilated. (d) It shall have all openings effectively screened including outward opening, self-closing doors, unless other effective means are provided to prevent the entrance of flies. (e) It shall be used for no other purposes than those specified above except as may be approved by the health officer; shall not open directly into a stable or into any room used for domestic purposes; shall have water piped into it; shall be provided with adequate facilities for the heating of water for the cleaning of utensils; shall be equipped with two-compartment stationary wash and rinse vats, and which shall be so located and conducted as to prevent any contamination of the milk or of cleaned equipment.

Item 9r. Milk house or room, cleanliness and flies—The floors, walls, and ceilings, and equipment of the milk house or room shall be kept clean at all times. All means necessary for the elimination of flies shall be used.

Item 10r. Toilets—Every dairy farm shall be provided with one or more sanitary toilets conveniently located and properly constructed, operated, and maintained, so that the waste is inaccessible to flies and does not pollute the surface soil or contaminate any water supply.

Item 11r. Water supply. — The water supply for the milk room and dairy barn shall be properly located, constructed, and operated, and shall be easily accessible, adequate, and of a safe sanitary quality.

Item 12r. Utensils, construction.—All multi-use containers or other utensils used in the handling, storage, or transportation of milk or milk products must be made of smooth nonabsorbent material and of such construction as to be easily cleaned and must be in good repair. Joints and seams shall be soldered flush. Woven wire cloth shall not be used for straining milk. All milk pails shall be of a small-mouth design approved by the health officer. The manufacture, packing, transportation, and handling of single-service containers and container caps and covers shall be conducted in a sanitary manner.

Item 13r. Utensils, cleaning.—All multi-use containers, equipment, and other utensils used in the handling, storage, or transportation of milk and milk products must be thoroughly cleaned after each usage.

Item 14r. Utensils, bactericidal treatment.—All multi-use containers, equipment, and other utensils used in the handling, storage, or transportation of milk or milk products shall between each usage be subjected to an approved bactericidal process with steam, hot water, chlorine, or hot air.

Item 15r. Utensils, storage.—All containers and other utensils used in the handling, storage, or transportation of milk or milk products shall be stored so as not to become contaminated before being used.

Item 16r. Utensils, handling. — After bactericidal treatment no container or other milk or milk product utensil shall be handled in such manner as to permit of any part of any person or his clothing to come in contact with any surface with which milk or milk products come in contact.

Item 17r. Milking, udders and teats, abnormal milk.—The udders and teats of all milking cows shall be cleaned and rinsed with a bactericidal solution at the time of milking. Abnormal milk shall be kept out of the milk supply and shall be so handled and disposed of as to preclude the infection of the cows and the contamination of milk utensils.

Item 18r. Milking, flanks. — The flanks, bellies, and tails of all milking cows shall be free from visible dirt at the time of milking.

Item 19r. Milkers' hands.—The milkers' hands shall be clean, rinsed with a bactericidal solution, and dried with a clean towel immediately before milking and following any interruption in the milking operation. Wet-hand milking is prohibited. Convenient facilities shall be provided for the washing of milkers' hands.

Item 20r. Clean clothing.—Milkers and milk handlers shall wear clean outer garments while milking or handling milk, milk products, containers, utensils, or equipment.

Item 21r. Milk stools—Milk stools shall be kept clean, not padded, stored above floor.

Item 22r. Removal of milk.—Each pail or can of milk shall be removed immediately to the milk house or straining room. No milk shall be strained or poured in the dairy barn.

Item 23r. Cooling.—Milk must be cooled immediately after completion of milking to 70° F. or less, and maintained at the average temperature, as defined in Section 1 (R) until delivery. Milk must be delivered within 2 hours after completion of milking or cooled to 70° F. or less and maintained at that average temperature until delivered to the milk plant.

Item 24r. Personnel, health.—The health officer or a physician authorized by him may examine and take a careful morbidity history of every person connected with a dairy, or about to be employed, whose work brings him in contact with the production, handling, storage, or transportation of milk, milk products, containers, or equipment. If such examinations or history suggests that such person may be a carrier of or infected with the organisms of typhoid or paratyphoid fever or any other communicable diseases likely to be transmitted through milk, he shall secure appropriate specimens of body discharges and cause them to be examined in a laboratory approved by him or by the State health authorities for such examinations, and if the results justify such person shall be barred from such employment.

Such persons shall furnish such information, submit to such physical examinatons, and submit such laboratory specimens as the health officer may require for the purpose of determining freedom from infection.

Item 25r. Miscellaneous—All vehicles used for the transportation of milk or milk products shall be so constructed and operated as to protect their contents from the sun and from contamination. All vehicles shall be kept clean, and no substance capable of contaminating milk or milk products shall be transported with milk or milk products in such manner as to permit contamination. All vehicles used for the distribution of milk or milk products shall have the name of the distributor prominently displayed.

The immediate surrounding of the dairy shall be kept in a neat, clean condition.

Grade B raw milk—Grade B raw milk is raw milk which violates the bacterial standard and/or the abortion testing requirement of grade A raw milk, but which conforms with all other requirements for grade A raw milk, and has an average bacterial plate count not exceeding 1,000,000 per cubic centimeter, or an average direct microscopic count not exceeding 1,000,000 per cubic centimeter if clumps are counted or 4,000,000 per cubic centimeter if individual organisms are counted, or an average reduction time of not less than 2½ hours, as determined under Sections 1 (R) and 6.

Grade C raw milk.—Grade C raw milk is raw milk which violates any of the requirements for grade B raw milk.

Grade A pasteurized milk.—Grade A pasteurized milk is a grade A raw milk with such exceptions as are indicated if the milk is to be pasteurized, which has been pasteurized, cooled, and bottled in a plant conforming with all of the following items of sanitation and the average bacterial plate count of which at no time after pasteurization and until delivery exceeds 30,000 per cubic centimeter, as determined under Sections 1 (R) and 6.

The grading of a pasteurized milk supply shall include the inspection of receiving and collecting stations with respect to items 1p to 15p inclusive, and 17p, 19p, 22p, 23p, except that the partitioning requirements of item 5p shall not apply.

Item 1p. Floors.—The floors of all rooms in which milk or milk products are handled or stored or in which milk utensils are washed shall be constructed of concrete or other equally impervious and easily cleaned material and shall be smooth, properly drained, provided with trapped drains, and kept clean.

Item 2p. Walls and ceilings. — Walls and ceilings of rooms in which milk or milk products are handled or stored or in which milk utensils are washed shall have a smooth, washable, light-colored surface and shall be kept clean.

Item 3p. Doors and windows.—Unless other effective means are provided to prevent the access of flies, all opening into the outer air shall be effectively screened and doors shall be self-closing.

Item 4p. Lighting and ventilation.—All rooms shall be well lighted and ventilated.

Item 5p. Miscellaneous protection from contamination. — The various milk-plant operations shall be so located and conducted as to prevent any contamination of the milk or of the cleaned equipment. All means necessary for the elimination of flies shall be used. There shall be separate rooms for (a) the pasteurizing, processing, cooling, and bottling operations, and (b) the washing and bactericidal treatment of containers. Cans of raw milk shall not be unloaded directly into the pasteurizing room. Pasteurized milk or milk products shall not be permitted to come in contact with equipment with which unpasteurized milk or milk products have been in contact, unless such equipment has first been thoroughly cleaned and subjected to bactericidal treatment. Rooms in which milk, milk products, cleaned utensils, or containers are handled or stored shall not open directly into any stable or living quarters. The pasteurization plant shall be used for no other purposes than the processing of milk and milk products and the operations incident thereto except as may be approved by the health officer.

Item 6p. Toilet facilities.—Every milk plant shall be provided with toilet facilities conforming with the regulations of the City of Marion, Ohio. Toilet rooms shall not open directly into any room in which milk, milk products, equipment, or containers are handled or stored. The doors of all toilet rooms shall be self-closing. Toilet rooms shall be kept in a clean condition, in good repair, and well ventilated. In case privies or earth closets are permitted and used, they shall be separate from the building, and shall be of a sanitary type constructed and operated in conformity with the requirements of Item 10r, grade A raw milk.

Item 7p. Water supply. — The water supply shall be easily accessible, adequate, and of a safe, sanitary quality.

Item 8p. Hand-washing facilities.—Convenient hand-washing facilities shall be provided, including hot and cold running water, soap, and approved sanitary towels. The use of a common towel is prohibited.

Item 9p. Sanitary piping. — All piping used to conduct milk or milk products shall be "sanitary milk piping" of a type which can be easily cleaned with a brush. Pasteurized milk and milk products shall be conducted from one piece of equipment to another only through sanitary milk piping.

Item 10p. Construction and repair of containers and equipment. — All multi-use containers and equipment with which milk or milk products come in contact shall be constructed in such a manner as to be easily cleaned and shall be kept clean and in good repair. The manufacture, packing, transportation, and handling of single-service containers and container caps and covers shall be conducted in a sanitary manner.

Item 11p. Disposal of wastes.—All wastes shall be properly disposed of.

Item 12p. Cleaning and bactericidal treatment of containers and equipment.—All milk and milk products, containers and equipment, except single-service containers, shall be thoroughly cleaned after each usage. All containers shall be subjected to an approved bactericidal process after each cleaning and all equipment immediately before each usage. When empty and before being returned to a producer by a milk plant, each container shall be effectively cleaned and subjected to bactericidal treatment.

Item 13p. Storage of containers and equipment. — After bactericidal treatment of all bottles, cans, and other multi-use milk or milk products containers and equipment shall be stored in such a manner as to be protected from contamination.

Item 14p. Handling of containers and equipment. — Between bactericidal treatment and usage, and during usage, containers and equipment shall not be handled or operated in such manner as to permit contamination of the milk.

Item 15p. Storage of caps, parchment paper, and single-service containers.—Milk-bottle caps or cap stock, parchment paper for milk cans, and single-service containers shall be purchased and stored only in sanitary tubes and cartons, respectively, and shall be kept therein in a clean dry place.

Item 16p. Pasteurization. — Pasteurization shall be performed as described in Section 1 (k) of these regulations.

Item 17p. Cooling.—All milk and milk products received for pasteurization shall immediately be cooled in approved equipment to an aver- or less and maintained at that temperature until pasteurized, unless they are to be pasteurized within 2 hours after receipt; and all pasteurized milk and milk products shall be immediately cooled in approved equipment to an average temperature of 50° F. or less, as defined in Section 1 (R) and maintained thereat until delivery.

Item 18p. Bottling. — Bottling of milk and milk products shall be done at the place of pasteurization in approved mechanical equipment.

Item 19p. Overflow milk.—Overflow milk or milk products shall not be sold for human consumption.

Item 20p. Capping.—Capping of milk and milk products shall be done by approved mechanical equipment. Hand capping is prohibited. The cap or cover shall cover the pouring lip to at least its largest diameter.

Item 21p. Personnel, health.—The health officer or a physician authorized by him may examine and take a careful morbidity history of every person connected with a pasteurization plant, or about to be employed, whose work brings him in contact with the production, handling, storage, or transportation of milk, milk products, containers, or equipment. If such examination or history suggests that such person may be a carrier of or infected with the organism of typhoid or paratyphoid fever or any other communicable diseases likely to be transmitted through milk, he shall secure appropriate specimens of body discharges and cause them to be examined in a laboratory approved by him or by the State health authorities for such examinations, and if the results justify such person shall be barred from such employment.

Such persons shall furnish such information, submit to such physical examinations, and submit such laboratory specimens as the health officer may require for the purpose of determining freedom from infection.

Item 22p. Personnel, cleanliness.—All persons coming in contact with milk, milk products, containers, or equipment shall wear clean outer garments and shall keep their hands clean at all times while thus engaged.

Item 23p. Miscellaneous.—All vehicles used for the transportation of milk or milk products shall be so constructed and operated as to protect their contents from the sun and from contamination. All vehicles used for the transportation of milk or milk products in their final delivery containers shall be constructed with permanent tops and with permanent or roll-down sides and back, provided that openings of the size necessary to pass the delivery man may be permitted in the sides or back for loading and unloading purposes. All vehicles shall be kept clean, and no substance capable of contaminating milk or milk products shall be transported with milk or milk products in such manner as to permit contamination. All vehicles used for distribution of milk or milk products shall have the name of the distributor prominently displayed.

The immediate surroundings of the milk plant shall be kept in a neat, clean condition.

Grade B pasteurized milk.—Grade B pasteurized milk is pasteurized milk which violates the bacterial standard for Grade A pasteurized milk and/or the provision of lip-cover caps of Item 20p. and/or the requirements of Grade A raw milk be used, but which conforms with all other requirements for grade A pasteurized milk, has been made from raw milk or not less than grade B quality, and has an average bacterial plate count after pasteurization and before delivery not exceeding 50,000 per cubic centimeter, as determined under section 1 (R) and 6.

Grade C pasteurized milk.—Grade C pasteurized milk is pasteurized milk which violates any of the requirements for grade B pasteurized milk.

Section 8. Grades of milk and milk products which may be sold.—From and after 12 months from the date on which these regulations take effect, no milk or milk products shall be sold to the final consumer or to restaurants, soda fountains, grocery stores, or similar establishments except grade A pasteurized: Provided, That when any milk distributor fails to qualify for the above grade the health officer is authorized to revoke his permit, or in lieu thereof to degrade his product and permit its sale during a temporary period not exceeding 30 days or in emergencies such longer period as he may deem necessary.

Section 9. Supplementary grading prescribed and regrading authorized.—If, any time between the regular announcements of the grades of milk or milk products, a lower grade shall become justified, in accordance with Sections 5, 6, and 7 of these regulations, the health officer shall immediately lower the grade of such milk or milk products, and shall enforce proper labeling and placarding thereof.

Any producer or distributor of milk or milk products the grade of which has been lowered by the health officer, and who is properly labeling his milk and milk products, may at any time make application for the regrading of his product.

Upon receipt of a satisfactory application, in case the lowered grade is the result of an excessive average bacterial plate count, direct microscopic count, reduction time, or cooling temperature, the health officer shall take further samples of the applicant's output, at a rate of not more than two samples per week. The health officer shall regrade the milk or milk products upward whenever the average of the last four samples results indicates the necessary quality, but not before the lapse of 2 weeks from the date of degrading.

In case the lowered grade of the applicant's product is due to violation of an item of the specifications prescribed in Section 7, other than average bacterial plate count, direct microscopic count, reduction time, or cooling temperature, the said application must be accompanied by a statement signed by the applicant to the effect that the violated item of the specifications has been conformed with. Within one week of the receipt of such an application and statement, the health officer shall make a reinspection of the applicant's establishment, and thereafter as many additional reinspections as he may deem necessary to assure himself that the applicant is again complying with the higher grade requirements, and, in case the findings justify, shall regrade the milk or milk products upward, but not before the lapse of 2 weeks from the date of degrading.

Section 10. Transferring or dipping milk; delivery containers; handling of more than one grade; delivery of milk at quarantined residences.—Except as permitted in this section, no milk producer or distributor shall transfer milk or milk products from one container to another on the street, or in any vehicle or store, or in any place except a bottling or milk room especially used for that purpose. The sale of dip milk is hereby prohibited.

All pasteurized milk and milk products shall be placed in their final delivery containers in the plant in which they are pasteurized. Milk and milk products sold in the distributor's containers in quantities less than 1 gallon shall be delivered in standard milk bottles or in single-service containers. It shall be unlawful for hotels, soda fountains, restaurants, groceries and similar establishments to sell or serve any milk or milk product except in the individual original container in which it was received from the distributor or from a bulk container equipped with an approved dispensing device: Provided, That this requirement shall not apply to cream consumed on the premises, which may be served from the original bottle or from a dispenser approved for such service.

It shall be unlawful for any hotel, soda fountain, restaurant, grocery, or similar establishment to sell or serve any milk or milk products which have not been maintained, while in its possession, at a temperature of 50° F. or less.

No milk or milk products shall be permitted to come in contact with equipment with which a lower grade of milk or milk products has been in contact unless such equipment has first been thoroughly cleaned and subjected to bactericidal treatment.

The pouring lips of bottles containing milk or milk products in non-leakproof containers shall not be submerged in water for cooling.

It shall be the duty of all persons to whom milk or milk products are delivered to clean thoroughly the containers in which such milk or milk products are delivered before returning such container. Apparatus, containers, equipment, and utensils used in the handling, storage, processing, or transporting of milk or milk products shall not be used for any other purpose without the permission of the health officer.

The delivery of milk or milk products to and the collection of milk or milk-product containers from residences in which cases of communicable disease transmissable through milk supplies exist shall be subject to the special requirements of the health officer.

Section 11. Milk and milk products from points beyond the limits of routine inspection. — Milk and milk products from points beyond the limits of routine inspection of the City of Marion, Ohio, may not be sold in the City of Marion, Ohio, unless produced and/or pasteurized under provisions equivalent to the requirements of these regulations; Provided, That the health officer shall satisfy himself that the health officer having jurisdiction over the production and processing is properly enforcing such provisions.

Section 12. Future dairies and milk plants.—All dairies and milk plants from which milk or milk products are supplied to the City of Marion, Ohio, which are hereafter constructed, reconstructed, or extensively altered shall conform in their construction to the requirements of these regulations for grade A dairy farms producing milk for consumption in the grade A pasteurization plants, respectively. Provided, That the requirement of a two-room milk house shall be waived in the case of dairies the milk from which is to be pasteurized. Properly prepared plans for all dairies and milk plants which are hereafter constructed, reconstructed, or extensively altered shall be submitted to the health officer for approval before work is begun. In the case of milk plants signed approval shall be obtained from the health officer and/or the State Health Department.

Section 13. Notification of disease.—No person who is afflicted with any disease in a communicable form or is a carrier of such disease shall work at any dairy farm or milk plant in any capacity which brings him in contact with production, handling, storage, or transportation of milk, milk products, containers, or equipment; and no dairy farm or milk plant shall employ in any such capacity any such person or any person suspected of being affected with any disease in a communicable form or of being a carrier of such disease. Any producer or distributor of milk or milk products upon whose dairy farm or in whose milk plant any communicable disease occurs, or who suspects that any employe has contracted any disease in a communicable form or has become a carrier of such disease, shall notify the health officer immediately. A placard containing this section shall be posted in all toilet rooms or privies.

Section 14. Procedure when infection suspected. — When suspicion arises as to the possibility of transmission of infection from any person concerned with the handling of milk or milk products the health officer is authorized to require any or all of the following measures: (1) The immediate exclusion of that person from milk handling; (2) the immediate exclusion of the milk supply concerned from distribution and use; (3) adequate medical and bacteriological examination of the person, of his associates and of his and their body discharges.

Section 15. Enforcement interpretation.—These regulations shall be enforced by the health officer in accordance with the interpretations thereof contained in the 192[illegible] edition of the United States Public Health Service Milk Code, a certified copy of which shall be on file in the office of the Board of Health.

Section 16. Penalty.—Any person who shall violate any provision of these regulations shall, upon conviction, be subject to the penalties provided in Section 4414 of the General Code of the State of Ohio.

Section 17. Repeal and date of effect.—All regulations and parts of regulations in conflict with these regulations are hereby repealed; and these regulations shall be in full force and effect immediately upon their adoption and publication as provided by law.

Section 18. Unconstitutionality clause.—Should any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, or phrase of these regulations be declared unconstitutional or invalid for any reason, the remainder of said regulations shall not be affected thereby.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF OHIO

Proposing to amend section 8 of Article VIII of the Constitution of the state of Ohio to increase the number of members of the board styled "The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund" by providing that the governor and treasurer of state shall be members thereof in addition to the present membership consisting of the auditor of state, secretary of state and attorney general.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the state of Ohio, three fifths of the members elected to each house thereof concurring therein, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Ohio, in the manner prescribed by law, at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1947, a proposition to amend section 8 of Article VIII of the Constitution of the state of Ohio to read as follows:

ARTICLE VIII

Section 8. The governor, treasurer of state, auditor of state, secretary of state, and attorney general, are hereby created a board of commissioners, to be styled, "The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund".

SCHEDULE

If a majority of the electors voting on the foregoing proposed amendment adopt the same it shall become a part of the Constitution of the state of Ohio, and existing section 8 of Article VIII of said Constitution shall thereupon be repealed.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
STATE OF OHIO
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

I, EDWARD J. HUMMEL, Secretary of State of the State of Ohio, do hereby certify that the foregoing is an exemplified copy, carefully compared by me with the original now on file in my office and in my official custody as Secretary of State and found to be true and correct, of a Joint Resolution adopted by the Ninety-seventh General Assembly of the State of Ohio, on the 12th day of June, 1947, and filed in the office of the Secretary of State on the 18th day of June, 1947, proposing to amend Article VIII, Section 8, of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, relative to increasing the number of members of the board styled "The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund" by providing that the governor and treasurer of state shall be members thereof in addition to the auditor of state, secretary of state and attorney general.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF OHIO

Proposing to amend section 7 of article IV and section 2 of article XVII of the constitution relating to the term of office and the compensation of the judge of the probate court.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, three fifths of the members elected to each House concurring therein, That there shall be submitted to the electors of the state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1947, a proposal to amend section 7 of article IV and section 2 of article XVII of the constitution of the State of Ohio to read as follows:

ARTICLE IV

Sec. 7. There shall be established in each county, a probate court, which shall be a court of record, open at all times, and holden by one judge, elected by the electors of the county, who shall hold his office for the term of six years, and shall receive such compensation as shall be provided by law. Whenever ten per centum of the number of electors voting for governor at the next preceding election in any county having less than sixty thousand population as determined by the next preceding federal census, shall petition the judge of the court of common pleas of any such county not less than ninety days before any general election for county officers, the judge of the court of common pleas shall submit to the electors of such county the question of combining the probate court with the court of common pleas, and such courts shall be combined and shall be known as the court of common pleas in case a majority of the electors voting upon such question vote in favor of such combination. Notice of such election shall be given in the same manner as for the election of county officers. Elections may be had in the same manner for the separation of such courts, when once combined.

ARTICLE XVII

Sec. 2. The term of the office of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State and Treasurer of State shall be two years, and that of the Auditor of State shall be four years. The term of office of Judges of the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeals shall be such even number of years not less than six (6) years as may be prescribed by the General Assembly; and that of the Judges of the Common Pleas Court six (6) years and of the Judges of the Probate Court, six (6) years, and that of other Judges shall be such even number of years not exceeding six (6) years as may be prescribed by the General Assembly. The term of office of the Justices of Peace shall be such even number of years not exceeding four (4) years, as may be prescribed by the General Assembly. The term of office of all elective county, township, municipal and school officers shall be such even number of years not exceeding four (4) years as may be so prescribed.

And the General Assembly shall have power to so extend existing terms of office as to effect the purpose of Section 1 of this Article.

Any vacancy which may occur in any elective state office other than that of a member of the General Assembly or of Governor, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor until the disability is removed, or a successor elected and qualified. Every such vacancy shall be filled by election at the first general election for the office which is vacant, that occurs more than thirty (30) days after the vacancy shall have occurred. The person elected shall fill the office for the unexpired term. All vacancies in other elective offices shall be filled for the unexpired term in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

SCHEDULE

The above proposal shall be placed on the official ballot in such form as the secretary of state may prescribe. If the votes for the proposal shall exceed those against it, this amendment shall take effect and existing section 7 of article IV and section 2 of article XVII of the constitution of the state of Ohio shall be repealed and annulled.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

I, EDWARD J. HUMMEL, Secretary of State of the State of Ohio, do hereby certify that the foregoing is an exemplified copy, carefully compared by me with the original now on file in my office and in my official custody as Secretary of State and found to be true and correct, of a Joint Resolution adopted by the Ninety-seventh General Assembly of the State of Ohio, on the 13th day of June, 1947, and filed in the office of the Secretary of State on the 18th day of June, 1947, proposing to amend Article IV, Section 7, and Article XVII, Section 2, of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, relative to term of office and compensation of the judge of the probate court.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my official seal at Columbus, Ohio, this 5th day of September, 1947.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF OHIO

Proposing to amend Article VIII of the Constitution of the state of Ohio to provide for the payment of compensation by the state of Ohio to its residents who shall have served in the armed forces of the United States in World War II, or to their survivors, and to issue bonds of the state of Ohio to provide the funds therefor.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, three fifths of the members elected to each house thereof concurring therein, That there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Ohio, in the manner prescribed by law, at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1947, a proposition to amend Article VIII of the Constitution of the state of Ohio by adding thereto immediately after section 2a of said Article a new section as follows.

2b. The board of commissioners created by section 8 of Article VIII of the Constitution of the state of Ohio, designated therein "The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund", shall, forthwith upon the adoption of this amendment, proceed to issue and sell, from time to time, bonds of the state of Ohio in such amounts of face value as it may deem necessary to provide the funds, or such part thereof, as may be required to pay the compensation and the expenses of administering this section as herein provided for, provided, however, that the aggregate total amount of face value of bonds so issued shall not exceed three hundred million dollars. The full faith and credit of the state of Ohio is hereby pledged for the payment of such bonds. All bonds so issued shall mature in thirty semi-annual installments after the respective dates thereof, and the maturities thereof shall be so fixed that the total amounts of payments on account of principal and interest to be paid on each of such semi-annual installment payment dates shall be approximately equal, but no such bonds shall be issued or bear dates later than the first day of April, 1951. All bonds so issued shall bear interest at such rates as The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund may fix, which interest shall be payable semi-annually. Such bonds, and the interest thereon as income, shall be exempt from all taxes levied by the state of Ohio or any taxing district thereof. The bonds may, at the option of the Sinking Fund Commission, be issued subject to call on any interest payment date at par and accrued interest. All sales of such bonds by The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund shall be in accordance with such regulations as it shall make and promulgate, provided, however, that such bonds shall be sold only to the highest bidder or bidders therefor after notice of such sale shall have been published once each week for three consecutive weeks on the same day of each of such weeks, the first of such notices being published at least twenty-one full days before the date of sale, in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the eight most populous counties in the state of Ohio, and provided that each of such published notices shall state the day, hour and place of the sale, the total face value of the bonds to be sold, their denominations, dates, and the dates of their maturities, information relative to the rates of interest which the bonds will bear, and the dates upon which interest will be payable. The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund shall have the right to reject any or all bids and to re-advertise and re-offer bonds for sale. Out of the proceeds of the sale of all bonds that amount which represents accrued interest, if any, shall be paid into the treasury of the state of Ohio into a fund to be known as the World War II Compensation Bond Retirement Fund. The balance shall be paid into the treasury of the state of Ohio into a fund to be known as the World War II Compensation Fund. The General Assembly of the state of Ohio may appropriate and cause to be paid into the World War II Compensation Bond Retirement Fund or the World War II Compensation Fund, out of the funds in the treasury of the state not otherwise appropriated, such amounts as it may deem proper for use upon order of The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund for the purposes for which such funds are created as herein provided. If the General Assembly should so appropriate any funds to the World War II Compensation Fund prior to the time The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund shall have issued bonds of the aggregate total amount of face value authorized in this section, the aggregate total amount of face value of bonds so authorized to be issued shall be reduced by the amount of the funds so appropriated.

During the period of fifteen years beginning January 1, 1949, the treasurer of state of the state of Ohio shall, without appropriation thereof by the General Assembly, transfer into said World War II Compensation Bond Retirement Fund one million dollars each month out of funds in the state treasury derived from taxes levied by the state for the purpose of providing revenues to defray the expenses of the state, excepting the taxes levied by the state by sections 5527, 5541, and 6291 of the General Code of Ohio as the same may be in effect on the effective date of this section. To secure such monthly transfer of funds a lien is hereby created upon all funds coming into the state treasury after January 1, 1949, derived from taxes as aforesaid, which lien shall be the first and best lien upon all such funds. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of state to set aside and use for the purpose of making such monthly transfer of funds, a part of each dollar received in the state treasury in each calendar year during said period of fifteen years beginning January 1, 1949, derived from taxes as aforesaid, so that the total amount of money so set aside in each of such calendar years shall be twelve million dollars, and so that the ratio which the amount of each dollar so set aside shall bear to one dollar shall be the same as the ratio which the amount of twelve million dollars shall bear to the total amount of money received in the state treasury in such calendar years derived from taxes as aforesaid. The treasurer of state shall set aside such part of each such dollar before paying out, transferring, or disposing of in any other manner, such dollar or any part thereof for any other purpose whatsoever, and he shall make the transfer of one million dollars each month to the World War II Compensation Bond Retirement Fund hereinabove provided for, out of said sum of twelve million dollars so set aside in each of such calendar years.

The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund shall, on or before the first day of July in each calendar year, levy and certify to the auditor of the state of Ohio a state tax on all taxable property subject to taxation on the general tax lists of all counties in the state of Ohio for such year at such rate as it shall determine to be necessary to provide, together with other money which will be available in the World War II Compensation Bond Retirement Fund, the total amount of funds which will be required in the next following calendar year for the retirement of bonds and the payment of interest payable in such year. Such levy shall be in addition to all other taxes levied now or hereafter within the period during which bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be outstanding, by or pursuant to law or any provision of the Constitution of the state of Ohio, and shall not be considered in applying any limitation or aggregate tax rates now or hereafter within the period during which bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be outstanding, provided by or pursuant to law or any provision of the Constitution of the state of Ohio. The auditor of state shall certify such levies to the auditor of each county in the state of Ohio, who shall extend the same on the tax lists of his county for the year in which such levy is made and shall place same for collection on the tax duplicates of his county to be collected at the same time and in the same manner as other taxes on such duplicates. Said taxes herein authorized, when collected, shall be paid into the World War II Compensation Bond Retirement Fund in the treasury of the state. The World War II Compensation Bond Retirement Fund shall be paid out, without appropriation thereof by the General Assembly of Ohio, upon the order of The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund for the purpose of the payment, or retirement in other manner, of said bonds and interest thereon.

The World War II Compensation Fund shall be paid out upon order of The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, without appropriation by the General Assembly of Ohio, in payment of the expenses of administering this section, and as compensation as follows: every person who shall have served in active duty in the armed forces of the United States at any time between December 7, 1941, and September 2, 1945, both dates inclusive, and who, at the time of commencing such service, was and had been a resident of the state of Ohio for at least one year immediately preceding the commencement of such service, and who shall have been separated from such service under honorable conditions, or who is still in such service, or who has been retired, and who was in such service for a period of at least ninety days, shall be entitled to receive compensation of ten dollars for each month during which such person was in active domestic service and fifteen dollars for each month during which such person was in active foreign service within said period of time; provided, however, that any person who was serving in active duty in the armed forces of the United States on the seventh day of December, 1941, and who did not so serve at least ninety days thereafter because of a service connected injury or death shall be deemed to have served at least ninety days within the period of time commencing December 7, 1941 and ending September 2, 1945; and provided, further, that the maximum amount of compensation payable under this section shall not be in excess of four hundred dollars; and provided, further, that no compensation shall be paid under this section to any person who shall have received from another state a bonus or compensation of a like nature as is provided under this section. No compensation shall be paid under this section to any person for any periods of time spent under penal confinement during the period of active duty. Compensation for a fraction of a month of service shall be paid on the basis of one thirtieth of the above monthly amounts for each day of such service. Service in the merchant marine of the United States shall not be considered for the purpose of this section. "Domestic service" as used herein means service within the continental limits of the United States (excluding Alaska). "Foreign service" as used herein means service in all other places, including sea duty.

Either the surviving husband or wife, or the surviving child or children, or the surviving parents or parent, of a deceased person shall be paid the same amount of compensation that such deceased person would be entitled to receive under this section, if living; provided, however, that if such deceased person's death was service-connected and in line of duty, his survivors as herein before designated, shall be paid four hundred dollars regardless of the amount of compensation which such deceased person would be entitled to receive under this section, if living; provided further, that the amount of compensation payable to such survivors of such deceased person shall be payable only to one of the three groups of survivors hereinbefore designated in the order in which said groups are herein named; and provided further, that the surviving husband or wife of more than one deceased person who would be entitled to receive compensation under this section, if living, shall be paid only that amount of compensation payable by reason of the first of the deaths of such deceased persons.

No sale or assignment of any right or claim to compensation under this section shall be valid, no claims of creditors shall be enforceable against rights or claims to or payments of compensation under this section and no fees shall be charged for services in connection with the prosecution of any right or claim to compensation or the collection of any compensation under this section.

The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund shall have complete charge of making payments of the compensation provided for in this section and shall adopt and promulgate regulations governing their procedure in connection therewith, including determinations as to who are proper beneficiaries and amounts to which such beneficiaries are entitled, determinations as to whether an applicant has the necessary residence requirements, and such other regulations as it may deem necessary and proper; provided, however, that all applications for payment of compensation under this section shall be made to The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund before July 1, 1950.

The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund shall select and appoint such legal counsel and employees as it may deem necessary, fix their compensation and prescribe their duties, and all such appointees shall serve at its pleasure.

The people of the state of Ohio declare that their enactment of this special amendment of the Constitution of the state of Ohio is to meet the specific emergency covered thereby, and they declare it to be their intention to in no manner affect or change any of the existing provisions of the said Constitution except as herein set forth. The provisions of this section shall be self-executing.

Upon the retirement of all of the bonds that may be issued hereunder and the payment of all valid claims for compensation made within the limitations of time as prescribed herein, The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund shall make a final report to the General Assembly of Ohio, and any balance remaining in any of the funds herein created and referred to shall be disposed of as shall be provided by law.

Be it further resolved, That at the election herein designated for the submission of this amendment to the electors of the state of Ohio, the same shall be placed on the official ballot in the manner prescribed by law and shall be designated as follows:

☐	YES	To amend Article VIII of the Constitution of the state of Ohio to provide for the payment of compensation by the state of Ohio to its residents who shall have served in the armed forces of the United States in World War II, or to their survivors, and to issue bonds of the state of Ohio to provide the funds therefor.
☐	NO

And be it further resolved, That the required publication of the said proposed amendment shall be made and the form of ballot to be used in said election for the submission thereof shall be prepared by the secretary of state of the state of Ohio in conformity with the above provisions. If a majority of the electors voting on said amendment shall be declared according to law, to have voted in favor thereof, the governor of the state of Ohio shall make proclamation thereof forthwith.

New York Stock Quotations

1 O'CLOCK QUOTATIONS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 — Stocks generally pushed up on expanded volume in today's market although a certain amount of selling on the recent rise was in evidence.

Bullish sentiment still was inspired mainly by business optimism and the feeling that European relief would prop many industrial companies which otherwise might run into domestic resistance.

Dealings quieted at intervals after a fast opening in which numerous sizable blocks changed hands. Gains of fractions to 2 or more points predominated near midday.

The long-awaited merger approval lifted Pacific Western Oil 2¾ on an initial 4,000-share transaction and Mission Corp. 1¾ on a 2,200-share trade, both at 1947 peaks. Favored were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, U. S. Rubber, Deere, Western Union, Allied Chemical, Tidewater Oil, Skelly Oil, Deep Rock Oil, Southern Railway and Northern Pacific.

200 Attend Quarterly Meeting Of Catholic Women's Council

More than 200 women from Marion and other parishes in the Western deanery of the Columbus diocese, attended a quarterly meeting of the deanery council of the National Council of Catholic Women, yesterday afternoon at Moira hall. The women attended solemn benediction which marked the closing of Forty Hours devotion at St. Mary Catholic church.

Mrs. Mary Maxwell, president of St. Mary council, presided. At a meeting of the deanery board prior to the general meeting the following officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. Hayes Cooper of Marion, president; Mrs. James Passon of Delaware, vice president; Mrs. L. A. Axe of Marion, secretary, and Mrs. John Geissler of Marysville, treasurer. Mrs. John Ward of Delaware, was named representative-at-large.

Speakers for the program were Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, V. F., dean of the Western deanery, Rev. Paul O'Dea of St. Charles seminary and priest consultant of the P.-T. A., and Rev. Roland Wenel, diocesan moderator of Columbus, Mrs. Anna Marie Cline, diocesan president, Miss Adele Foley of Columbus, and Rev. Elmer H. Boyden, assistant pastor of St. Mary's church.

Discusses Role of P.-T. A.

The part the P.-T. A. can take in parish activities was discussed by Rev. O'Dea in his talk. The P.-T. A., he pointed out is universal, in that it is the mutual job of parent and teacher in the interest of the welfare of the child. It is important, he said, if a teacher wants to give the best that she understand the child and likewise parents should have the benefit of the teacher's knowledge of the child.

The work of the N. C. C. W. in the program of Catholic Action for the laity of the world was the theme of Rev. Wenel's talk. He asked the councils to be realistic in facing the problems confronting them in parish, diocesan and the world today, to work closely with their bishops and priests, to be informed on Catholic Action and make it grow and bear fruit.

Rev. Spickerman talked on the work of councils in the deanery and Rev. Boyden spoke from the viewpoint of the assistant priests in the deanery.

Mrs. Cline talked on the five point program and emphasized the need of active councils in the deaneries of the diocese and Miss Foley presented the program for the second annual convention of the Columbus Diocesan Council to be held Oct. 29 at the Neil House in Columbus.

Church Filled

The church was filled to capacity for the Solemn Benediction at 5 o'clock for which Rev. Francis X. Hermiller, pastor of St. Joseph church at Galion was the celebrant. Rev. Edward Healy, assistant pastor of Immaculate Conception church at Kenton was deacon, Rev. James Carroll, assistant at Holy Family church, Columbus and former assistant pastor here was sub-deacon and Rev. Spickerman was master of ceremonies.

More than 50 acolytes, visiting priests, the church wardens and members of Monsignor Joseph M. Denning Council, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus marched in the processional as the Blessed Sacrament was carried through the aisles of the church and the hundreds of worshipers knelt in silent adoration.

Assisting in the sanctuary were Rev. Felix Cleary, pastor of St. Joseph church, LaRue, Rev. J. Arnold Favret, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes church, Marysville, Rev. H. J. Schumacher, pastor of Immaculate Conception church, Kenton, Rev. Wenel, Rev. O'Dea, Rev. Joseph Busix, pastor of St. Patrick's church, London, Rev. Benedict Rubeck, O. M. C. and Rev. Basil Heiser, O. M. C. of the faculty of Our Lady of Carey seminary, Carey, Rev. Leo Reinartz, pastor of Holy Trinity church, Bucyrus, Rev. William O'Brian, pastor and Rev. William McEwan, assistant pastor of St. Mary church, Delaware, and Rev. Boyden.

Following the service the visiting women and women from St. Mary parish were guests at a buffet supper in Moira hall served by the local council. The visiting pastors were guests of Rev. Spickerman for dinner.

CITED FOR BRAVERY. Bosun's Mate on the Coast Guard cutter Bibb, Ralph J. Keller (above), 28, of Fairhope, Ala., has been praised by the ship's captain for his bravery in saving the life of a passenger on the ill-fated plane, Bermuda Sky Queen, which landed in the ocean with 69 persons off Newfoundland. When Mrs. May D. Last, 61, of Los Angeles, was washed overboard from the rescue boat, Keller jumped from the cutter's deck and kept her from being crushed by bracing his feet against the vessel's side.

MAN HELD TO JURY ON ROBBERY CHARGE

Hazel Fair, 34, of 874 Kenton avenue, pleaded not guilty when arraigned in municipal court this morning on the charge of armed robbery. A $1,000 bond was set and a hearing was scheduled for Oct. 23.

Fair was arrested at 3:05 a. m. Saturday after Robert H. Briggs of 262 Senate street reported to police that Fair had threatened him outside of Fair's home with a 12 gauge shotgun and had taken $100 from him, the money being Brigg's winnings in a crap game in the company of Fair.

F.F.A. at Harpster To Sponsor Program

The Hoosier Cornhuskers, well known radio entertainers, will appear in person at the Harpster-Little Sandusky school Oct. 27, under the sponsorship of the Harpster-Lewis Chapter of Future Farmers of America.

Proceeds from the show will be used by the chapter to provide entertainment for residents of Harpster and surrounding communities.

The show will start at 8 p. m. and will include a variety of American folk, hillbilly and western songs, instrumental numbers and novelty acts. Featured will be LaVern and Margaret, the Sunset Valley girls, Clair Meekins, Grandpap and his fiddle, Professor Pete Smith and Al Pettit and his accordion. The troupe may be heard daily over Findlay station WFIN.

Tickets are on sale by F.F.A. members, also at the A. L. Brent store in Harpster, the Village Tavern in Little Sandusky and Mccumbers meat market in Morral.

BOY... AM I GLAD T'BE OUTA THAT CELL... I WAS GOIN' NUTS... FELT LIKE A MOUSE, I MEAN, IN A TRAP.
WHAT'S THE NEXT PROCEDURE, BERT?
AFTER THE GRAND JURY INDICTS KNOBBY... WE'LL HAVE TO STAND TRIAL.
INDICTS ME... W-WHY I AIN'T GUILTY... I THOT YA...
EASY, KNOBBY... THE INDICTMENT IS ONLY AN ACCUSATION. YOU'LL PROVE YOUR INNOCENCE AT THE TRIAL.
WHEW! I'M GLAD YOU EXPLAINED WHAT AN INDICTMENT WAS.
YA MEAN I GOTTA BE UNDER SUSPICION TILL THEN... W-WHY HOW KIN I FACE TH' BUNCH... WHY I...
I WANT YOU TO GO AWAY UNTIL I CALL YOU. IT'S BETTER THAN BEING AROUND TOWN. YOU CAN'T LEAVE THE STATE THO.
BERT'S RIGHT, KNOBBY, YOU'LL BE MUC BETTER OFF.

WHEE! THERE GOES THE DIGNIFIED BANKER, GREENWICH GRIMES, RUNNING SO FAST, RUNNING SO FAST, HIS SHADOW'S COMING IN SECOND!
SERVES HIM RIGHT... TRYING TO SCARE US OFF THE PLACE BY PRETENDING TO BE OLD BARNABY'S GHOST...
WHY ARE YOU LETTING HIM OFF SO EASY? HE SHOULD BE ARRESTED!
NOW, MIN.. WOULD THAT BE THE WAY TO TREAT A CUSTOMER?
CUSTOMER?! YOU MEAN YOU'RE GOING TO S-SELL THIS HOUSE TO HIM?!
